I hold that the Mossad did not commit the terrorist acts against the USA on 9/11.

I personally feel that they had been tracking the actual terrorists, and had some knowledge (the depth of which we certainly don't know today) that a strike was in the works.

Ansar holds the opinion that the Mossad committed the terrorist acts on 9/11 against the US out of "cui bono".

📖 Re: Did the Mossad commit the terrorist acts against the US on 9/11? {Ansar Wrote}

My aim in this cage match is to show the undeniable mountain of evidence pointing to Israeli involvement with 9/11. This evidence, if was pointed to at any other country in the world, would make Americans demand en-mass a full investigation of the facts surrounding 9/11 and immediate cooling of relations between that country and the U.S. In fact there is already such a petition signed by now over a hundred thousand people demanding this investigation. From the evidences I am aware of, I firmly believe that the Israelis and crooked elements in our government engineered 9/11 to create a Pearl harbor type of event that would benefit the American Israeli dupes and their Jewish masters.

The other point that is very personal to me is that thousands of Muslims have been killed, harassed and tortured. The U.S. is about to attack Iraq another Muslim country under false pretense somehow linking 9/11 to Iraq. Thousands of more innocent Muslims will die. I think a thorough exposure of this frame-up of Muslims by the media and our Zionist Occupied Government is necessary if not only to make the suffering and deaths of thousands of innocent Muslims not be in vain.

Fraud and deception has been the way of the Jahcubites (Satanic Jews) for thousands of years. I use the term Jahcubites instead of Jews because I don't think it is fair to lump all Jews under this umbrella of being evil. There are too many good Jews who don't fit in that category and too many of them who lost their lives fighting against the diabolical scheme of the Jahcubites.

The use of media as a way of swaying public opinion in defiance of truth is an old tactic. It was even done in the time of Christ (pbuh). The Sadducees and the Pharisees were able to convince the Romans and their own people that Christ (pbuh) committed treason and that he should be crucified. They even were successful in getting the people to make choosing to spare the life of Barabbas, a common criminal, more valuable than sparing the life of the noble Christ (pbuh). With incidents like the Lavon Affair, the USS Liberty attempted sinking, the Mexican bombing attempt and others, the deceptive tactic of the Israelis -- committing actions and having others take the blame -- has been exposed. I contend that 9/11 is one of those actions. They were caught in the Lavon Affair, USS Liberty attack, etc. but with 9/11 there are countless instances of evidences pointing to them. The track record of the Israelis in conducting terrorist activities and causing others to take the blame as well as using the American media to shield their dirty deeds should not be ignored.

Thoughtcriminal I am going to make a list of events associating the Israelis with 9/11. Which one of these would you say is false:

1. Israelis were caught celebrating and photographing each other while the WTC was burning and going down in a rubble.
2. The men belonged to an Israeli company named Urban Moving Systems.
3. The owner of the company Dominik Suter immediately fled to Israel
4. After refusing lie detector tests for several weeks when taken each of the Israelis failed the lie detector tests.
5. Under suspicious circumstances the Israelis were deported to Israel
6. There were thousands of Israelis working in the WTC in high tech and high level jobs and executive positions primarily in international finance, banking and stock trading. There were several Israeli firms at the WTC.
7. The Foreign Ministry of Israel received the names of 4000 Israelis believed to be working in the WTC area.
8. Two employees of the Israeli company Odigo had prior warnings of the WTC attack 2 hours before it happened.

9. Initially President Bush reported that 130 Israelis got killed at the WTC but after final analysis it was found out that it was only one. Whereas other nations that had less employees working at the WTC had greater number of deaths.

10. There was a huge Israeli spy ring working in the U.S. and the authorities arrested many of them. The authorities in the DEA are on record stating that they believe this spy ring (art students) had something to do with 9/11.

11. In the van belonging to Urban moving maps were found that the FBI says showed the Israelis had a definite involvement with 9/11.

12. Israelis were caught on October 10, 2001 with explosives on them at the Mexican congress.

13. General Gul, who was the director General of the Pakistani Intelligence Services and a close ally of America, said the following: "Mossad and its American associates are the obvious culprits. Who benefits from the crime? The attacks against the twin towers started at 8:45 a.m. and four flights are diverted from their assigned air space and no air traffic controller sounds the alarm. And no Air Force jets scramble until 10 a.m. That also smacks of a small scale Air Force rebellion, a coup against the Pentagon perhaps? Radars are jammed, transponders fail. No IFF -- friend or foe identification -- challenge. In Pakistan, if there is no response to IFF, jets are instantly scrambled and the aircraft is shot down with no further questions asked. This was clearly an inside job. Bush was afraid and rushed to the shelter of a nuclear bunker. He clearly feared a nuclear situation. Who could that have been? Will that also be hushed up in the investigation, like the Warren report after the Kennedy assassination?"

I will stop here but have some more. I await your response.

14. Many newspapers in the U.S. and Canada reported incidents of people having foreknowledge of 9/11. One such incident is an American spy by the name of Vreeland who was imprisoned in Canada.

15. The Washington Times ran a story on September 10, 2001 about a 68-page study issued by the U.S. Army School for Advanced Military Studies (SAMS). The study, issued by the elite

Army officer's school, detailed the dangers of a possible U.S. Army occupational force in the Mideast. Here is the article's comment about the study's view of the Israeli Mossad:
Of the Mossad, the Israeli intelligence service, the SAMS officers say: "Wildcard. Ruthless and cunning. Has capability to target U.S. forces and make it look like a Palestinian/Arab act."
16. Thousands of people made huge profits on American Airline and United as a result of put stocks. Many of them were Israelis.
17. It is true that in the last authentic interview with Carol Valentine OBL denied having anything to do with 9/11?

I will stop at this point and would like for you to respond to any of the above as being true or false.

The dictionary definition of evidence is 1.) an outward sign: indication, 2.) something that furnishes proof, 3) testimony.

I feel that the above that I presented serves as evidences to show the Israeli involvement with 9/11. Along with their proven track record in events where they try to blame others for their actions and got caught I believe the Israelis are guilty as charged. It was not Russians, Chinese, Indians nor French men who were involved with any of the above incidents. It was Israelis and why? Maybe as a rebuttal you could tell me why all these events listed just so happens to involve Israelis and not people from other nations.

📄 Re: Did the Mossad commit the terrorist acts against the US on 9/11? {Ansar Wrote}

Now TC if you want to know how a person will act in the future don't you think it would be wise to look at how they acted in the past? Their actions in the past will give a good gage of what we can expect from them for their future actions. Let's look at some of Israel's past actions and the actions of Zionists. Again I would like you to answer true or false to each of the items listed:

1. In 1956, as reported by the Times Of London, during one of Israel's perpetual wars with its neighbors, the Mossad tried to trick the United States into siding with Israel against the Arabs by blowing up a US facility in Cairo and blaming the Arabs for it. The plot was wrecked when the operatives were caught and confessed, creating a huge scandal.
2. According to Victor Ostrovski, a defector from the Mossad, the USA was tricked into bombing Libya when the Mossad planted a radio transmitter in Tripoli which sent out fake orders to terrorists which the USA could intercept.
3. On June 8, Israel used unmarked fighters and torpedo boats to launch an hour and one-half attack on the American Navy ship the USS Liberty, costing 34 American lives and 171 wounded. The Israelis first attacked the Liberty's radio towers in an attempt to stop the Sixth Fleet from learning that the Israelis were the attackers. After unmarked Israeli fighters horrendously bombed and strafed the Liberty, Israel sent in torpedo boats to finish the job. They even machine gunned the deployed life rafts in an effort to ensure that there would be no survivors (witnesses) who could expose them. Just as in the Lavon Affair, Israel hoped to blame this act of war on their enemy, the Egyptians. This time, only the courage and resourcefulness of the Liberty's crew prevented a further compounding of the travesty.
4. As reported in La Vox De Aztlan, two men, one of them a former Israeli Colonel and Mossad agent, were arrested INSIDE the Mexican congress carrying 9mm pistols and dynamite, but were released following intense pressure from the Israeli Embassy. The initial arrests of the two Israelis inside the Palacio Legislativo de San Lázaro made top news on Mexico City television and radio on the evening of October 10. TV Azteca had extensive coverage on the first night and on the following day. La Cronica de Hoy Newspaper and El Universal Newspaper both covered the incident the following two days but now it seems that there is a lack of reports. If the Mexican Congress blew up guess who would have been blamed?
6. In 1950 there was a wave of anti-Semitism and terrorist acts against Jews in Iraq. One such person who was greatly affected by this was Naeim Giladi who was 21 at the time. He joined the Zionists to fight against an enemy who he thought were deliberately trying to kill Jews.

Today Naeim has changed he no longer supports the Zionists. In an essay "The Jews of Iraq", which is on line, Giladi describes his bitter realization that Zionists were behind the anti Semitism and bombings.

A testimony is one of the ways that evidence is defined. In the above Mr. Giladi admits that the Zionists committed acts against Iraqi Jews and got others to take the blame for it.

I contend that in the examples above and many more the Jews have shown a consistent pattern of performing terrorist acts and have others blamed so that they can advance their own interests. "Cui Bono" applied above and it also apply with 9/11. The ones who benefited most from the 9/11 attacks were the Israelis.

Even Netanyahu said the following:

Quote:

---

Asked tonight what the attack meant for relations between the United States and Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu, the former prime minister, replied, "It's very good." Then he edited himself: "Well, not very good, but it will generate immediate sympathy."

That is a lot better TC. Here are the sources for both 4 and 5.

Quote:

A September 14 New York Times round-up of the nationwide investigation into the terrorist attacks seemed to imply not just foreknowledge, in the case of the 5 Israelis, but some form of collaboration:

"In New Jersey, where officials believe that the hijackers received assistance from accomplices, Sherri Evanina, a spokeswoman for the FBI in Newark, said that five men were detained late Tuesday after the van in which they were driving was stopped on Route 3 in East Rutherford. She said witnesses had reported seeing the men celebrating the attack on the World Trade Center earlier in the day in Union City. 'They were seen leaving the location after they were celebrating,' Agent Evanina said. 'They were watching the entire event from their location.'" If the best comedy is unintentional, then "The White Van" is chock full of yucks. The following

had me rolling on the floor:

"For the FBI, deciphering the truth from the five Israelis proved to be difficult. One of them, Paul Kurzberg, refused to take a lie-detector test for 10 weeks — then failed it, according to his lawyer. Another of his lawyers told us Kurzberg had been reluctant to take the test because he had once worked for Israeli intelligence in another country."

Remember right after the attacks when you couldn't watch TV for five minutes without hearing somebody say "put option"? The 9/11 insider stock trades got endless airplay on the major networks before Osama bin Laden became fixed in the popular imagination, whereupon the media bent themselves to the task of establishing his guilt. Still, even if Al Qaeda placed the 4,744 suspicious transactions, wouldn't the story still be useful, if only to further illuminate the terrorist network's money machine? Apparently not, because the story didn't just fade away over time; it suddenly vanished. Once in a while, a TV news anchorperson would assure us there had been "nothing to" the rumors while failing to explain, if this was true, where the story had come from or why it had gotten so such attention.

But conservative scandal-tracker Tom Flocco didn't give up on the hinky stock trades. In a series of articles, he follows the money back to a bigwig in the financial firm Deutsche Bank, who also was once executive director of (surprise!) the CIA. Some might question Flocco's credibility as an investigative reporter, I suppose -- although credibility in the news business appears to be a dead letter anyway, if CNN could accidentally fabricate the 5,000 trades out of whole cloth to begin with.

I have associated sources with all my previous statements made and combined them. I have even added extra sources and comments to further make my case. I still want you to confirm that the information is accurate and the sources credible. I will start with the following:

1. Israelis were caught celebrating and photographing and videotaping each other while the WTC was burning and going down in a rubble.
2. The men belonged to an Israeli company named Urban Moving Systems.
3. The owner of the company Dominik Suter immediately fled to Israel.
4. After refusing lie detector tests for several weeks when taken each of the Israelis failed the lie detector tests.
5. Under suspicious circumstances the Israelis were deported to Israel.
11. In the van belonging to Urban Moving Systems maps were found that the FBI says showed the Israelis had a definite involvement with 9/11.

Sources for information above are as follows:

Quote:

1. In an astonishing story in the Bergen Record, we learn that 5 men described as "Israeli tourists," were picked up 8 hours after the WTC attack, "carrying maps linking them to the blasts." "...[S]ources close to the investigation said they found other evidence linking the men to the bombing plot.'There are maps of the city in the car with certain places highlighted,' the source said. 'It looked like they're hooked in with this. It looked like they knew what was going to happen when they were at Liberty State Park.'" According to this account, the 5 "tourists" had been picked up by local police after receiving the following alert from the FBI:

"Vehicle possibly related to New York terrorist attack. White, 2000 Chevrolet van with New Jersey registration with 'Urban Moving Systems' sign on back seen at Liberty State Park, Jersey City, NJ, at the time of first impact of jetliner into World Trade Center. Three individuals with van were seen celebrating after initial impact and subsequent explosion. FBI Newark Field Office requests that, if the van is located, hold for prints and detain individuals."

The White Van Were Israelis Detained on Sept. 11 Spies?

June 21 — Millions saw the horrific images of the World Trade Center attacks, and those who saw them won't forget them. But a New Jersey homemaker saw something that morning that prompted an investigation into five young Israelis and their possible connection to Israeli intelligence.

Maria, who asked us not to use her last name, had a view of the World Trade Center from her New Jersey apartment building. She remembers a neighbor calling her shortly after the first plane hit the towers.

She grabbed her binoculars and watched the destruction unfolding in lower Manhattan. But as she watched the disaster, something else caught her eye.

Maria says she saw three young men kneeling on the roof of a white van in the parking lot of her apartment building. "They seemed to be taking a movie," Maria said.

The men were taking video or photos of themselves with the World Trade Center burning in the background, she said. What struck Maria were the expressions on the men's faces. "They were like happy; you know ... They didn't look shocked to me. I thought it was very strange," she said.

She found the behavior so suspicious that she wrote down the license plate number of the van and called the police. Before long, the FBI was also on the scene, and a statewide bulletin was issued on the van.

The arresting officers said they saw a lot that aroused their suspicion about the men. One of the passengers had $4,700 in cash hidden in his sock. Another was carrying two foreign passports. A box cutter was found in the van. But perhaps the biggest surprise for the officers came when the five men identified themselves as Israeli citizens.

'We Are Not Your Problem'

According to the police report, one of the passengers told the officers they had been on the West Side Highway in Manhattan "during the incident" — referring to the World Trade Center attack. The driver of the van, Sivan Kurzberg, told the officers, "We are Israeli. We are not your problem. Your problems are our problems. The Palestinians are the problem." The other passengers were his brother Paul Kurzberg, Yaron Shmuel, Oded Ellner and Omer Marmari.

The five Israelis were held at the Metropolitan Detention Center in Brooklyn, ostensibly for overstaying their tourist visas and working in the United States illegally. Two weeks after their arrest, an immigration judge ordered them to be deported. But sources told ABCNEWS that FBI and CIA officials in Washington put a hold on the case.

The five men were held in detention for more than two months. Some of them were placed in solitary confinement for 40 days, and some of them were given as many as seven lie-detector tests.

For the FBI, deciphering the truth from the five Israelis proved to be difficult. One of them, Paul Kurzberg, refused to take a lie-detector test for 10 weeks — then failed it, according to his lawyer. Another of his lawyers told us Kurzberg had been reluctant to take the test because he had once worked for Israeli intelligence in another country...

---

From what the Israelis were saying to the cops, it is interesting how these Israelis "knew" the next day after 9/11 that the ones responsible were the Palestinians. How were they so sure? Then they proved to be liars anyway!

Sources:

1. These are the latest revelations, detailed in an article written by Paul Rodriguez for Insight – a magazine published by the Washington Times, editorially a staunch supporter of Israel:

Citing internal DEA documents and unnamed senior federal officials, Rodriguez basically confirms the thesis by Carl Cameron: that, starting last year, organized teams of young Israelis who described themselves as "art students" descended on federal facilities, including military bases, ostensibly selling their paintings, and aggressively seeking access – not only to public buildings, but to the private homes of senior officials. Rodriguez writes that the students "claimed to be from either the University of Jerusalem or the Bezalel Academy of Arts in Jerusalem." However, an Associated Press account which otherwise pooh-poohs the whole affair as "murky" at best, and sprinkles the story liberally with denials from Abe Foxman and several government officials, nonetheless informs us that:

"Several of those questioned by investigators said they were students from Bezalel Academy of Art and Design. But Pnina Calpen, spokeswoman for the Israeli school, said no one named in the report was a student there in the last 10 years."

"Besides federal law-enforcement incidents, DEA's I[nternal] S[ecurity] unit found that several military bases also had experienced unauthorized entries by some of the students, including two bases from which Stealth aircraft and other super secret military units operate. Unauthorized photographing of military sites and civilian industrial complexes, such as petroleum-storage facilities, also was reported to the DEA, the documents show and interviews confirm.

2. On December 11, Fox News ran the first of a four-part series by Carl Cameron that offered yet more evidence to support my contention that the Israelis had some rather specific foreknowledge of the 9/11 atrocity. Citing sources in law enforcement, Cameron dropped a bombshell:

"A handful of active Israeli military were among those detained, according to investigators, who say some of the detainees also failed polygraph questions when asked about alleged surveillance activities against and in the United States... A highly placed investigator said there are – quote – 'tie-ins.' But when asked for details, he flatly refused to describe them, saying, – quote – 'evidence linking these Israelis to 9-11 is classified. I cannot tell you about evidence that has been gathered. It's classified information.

The detained Israelis, reported Cameron, had been part of a vast spy operation that had very possibly been tracking the hijackers, and had both the means and the opportunity to discover the terrorist plot. Over four nights, he detailed extensive Israeli penetration of US defense and government facilities revealed in the documents of a secret task force within the government that has been collecting evidence on this case since the early 1990s.

Cameron's report, which was immediately denied by the Israelis, spread pandemonium throughout the government, and official spokesmen stonewalled. Ari Fleischer was unusually laconic, referring questions from reporters to an unresponsive Justice Department and other equally uncooperative government agencies. As for the rest of the American media – a stunning silence. You could hear a pin drop. As Cameron put it in an interview with CSPAN:

"The biggest story of our time, of Israel spying on all branches of the government, on all our intelligence agencies – in the CIA [Central Intelligence Agency], the DEA and the White House itself, is not picked up by the leading newspapers like the New York Times and the Washington Post."

3. From Der Spiegel:

"An entire troop of Israeli terror investigators disguised as students took to the tracks of Arabic terrorists and their cells in the USA between December 2000 and April 2001. During their undercover investigations, the Israelis came very close to the later perpetrators of September 11. In Hollywood, Florida they located both of the former Hamburg students and later terrorist pilots Mohammed Atta and Marwan al-Shehhi as potential terrorists. Agents settled down in immediate proximity of their apartment and observed the seemingly normal flight school students around the clock."

So they were living next door to the terrorists, including the leader of the 9/11 hijackers, watching their every move – but didn't tell us what they were up to until August, 2001. It is, of course, extremely difficult to prove the precise role of a secretive, foreign intelligence organization, such as the Mossad, in a terrorist act; they don't brag about their exploits on the Internet. If indeed they had foreknowledge of these murderous acts of terrorism – and then had the cold-blooded mentality not to warn the United States because they saw a horrendous massacre of thousands of Americans as good for Israel - it follows that they would have felt no restraint from actually instigating and covertly aiding this terrorist plan through their own agent provocateurs.

6. There were thousands of Israelis working in the WTC in high tech and high level jobs and executive positions primarily in international finance, banking and stock trading. There were several Israeli firms at the WTC.

7. The Foreign Ministry of Israel received the names of 4000 Israelis believed to be working in the WTC area.

9. Initially President Bush reported that 130 Israelis got killed at the WTC but after final analysis it was found out that it was only one. Whereas other nations that had less employees working at the WTC had greater number of deaths.

Sources for the above statements are as follows:

Quote:

The day after the attack on the World Trade Center, the Jerusalem Post, the most respected and famous Israeli newspaper in the world, reported that 4000 Israelis were missing in the attack on the WTC. The Foreign Ministry compiled the number from Israeli relatives, who in the first few hours after the attack, contacted the Israeli Foreign Ministry and gave the names of Israeli friends and relatives who worked in the WTC or who had business scheduled in it or its adjacent structures. Even without seeing the article in the Jerusalem Post, logic alone would tell you that there would be many hundreds, if not thousands of Israelis in the World Trade Center at the time of the attacks. The international Jewish involvement in banking and finance is legendary. For instance, two of the richest firms in New York are Goldman-Sachs and the Solomon Brothers; and both firms have offices in the Twin Towers. Many executives in these firms regularly commute back and forth to Israel. New York is the center of world-wide Jewish financial power, and the World Trade Center is at its epicenter. One would naturally expect the Israeli death toll to be catastrophic. The Jerusalem Post certainly thought so on September 12, 2001. Here is the beginning of its article:

Thousands of Israelis missing near WTC, Pentagon

The Foreign Ministry in Jerusalem has so far received the names of 4,000 Israelis believed to have been in the areas of the World Trade Center and the Pentagon at the time of the attack. (The headline and first sentence of the Jerusalem Post article)

Searching through hundreds of articles trying to track down the true Israeli death toll, I found a New York Times piece that clarified the precise number of Israelis who died in the World Trade Center attack. It turned out that of the 130 Israelis President Bush claimed had died in the World Trade Center, 129 of them were still alive. Only one Israeli had actually died. I was incredulous. "Good God," I said to myself, "only one Israeli!" Here is the pertinent excerpt from the NY Times:

But interviews with many consulate officials Friday suggested that the lists of people they were collecting varied widely in their usefulness. For example, the city had somehow received reports of many Israelis feared missing at the site, and President Bush in his address to the country on Thursday night mentioned that about 130 Israelis had died in the attacks.

But Friday, Alon Pinkas, Israel's consul general here, said that lists of the missing included reports from people who had called in because, for instance, relatives in New York had not returned their phone calls from Israel. There were, in fact, only three Israelis who had been confirmed as dead: two on the planes and another who had been visiting the towers on business and who was identified and buried. (New York Times, Sept. 22)

The very low death toll of 130 suggested that a number of Israelis at the Trade Center had been warned before the attack. When I found out the truth that only one Israeli had died, there could be no doubt that there had been a prior warning for many Israelis.

2. Officials at instant-messaging firm Odigo confirmed today that two employees received text messages warning of an attack on the World Trade Center two hours before terrorists crashed planes into the New York landmarks.

But Alex Diamandis, vice president of sales and marketing, confirmed that workers in Odigo's research and development and international sales office in Israel received a warning from another Odigo user approximately two hours prior to the first attack. (From the Washington Post's Newsbytes)

So now we have powerful and convincing evidence from impeccable sources that Israel had foreknowledge of the attack. First, without a prior warning, there could not have been only a single Israeli victim at the World Trade Center. Secondly, there is clear confirmation that a company with offices in both Israel and the WTC received warnings immediately prior to the attack.

Who would have warned Israelis of the impending attack, if not Israel's Mossad? The fact that Israel's government had prior knowledge of the pending attack and had warned potential Israeli victims, but then deliberately let thousands of Americans die – makes the Israelis equally responsible for the carnage.

13. General Gul, who was the director General of the Pakistani Intelligence Services and a close ally of America, said the following:

"Mossad and its American associates are the obvious culprits. Who benefits from the crime? The attacks against the twin towers started at 8:45 a.m. and four flights are diverted from their assigned air space and no air traffic controller sounds the alarm. And no Air Force jets scramble until 10 a.m. That also smacks of a small scale Air Force rebellion, a coup against the Pentagon perhaps? Radars are jammed, transponders fail. No IFF -- friend or foe identification -- challenge. In Pakistan, if there is no response to IFF, jets are instantly scrambled and the aircraft is shot down with no further questions asked. This was clearly an inside job. Bush was afraid and rushed to the shelter of a nuclear bunker. He clearly feared a nuclear situation. Who could that have been? Will that also be hushed up in the investigation, like the Warren report after the Kennedy assassination?"

General Hameed Gul was director general of the Pakistani Intelligence Services ISI (Inter-Services Intelligence) and a close ally of America, working hand in hand with the American CIA. Gul was also a great supporter of the "American Way Of Life" and Western democracy. General Gul turned against America for betrayal and countless broken promises.

---

What is key about General Gul is that he headed the ISI and had close contacts with the CIA and Mossad. If anyone would know about a covert operation, he would. In an interview conducted with Arnaud de Borchgrave on September 14, 2001 for UPI he said the following:

Quote:

De Borchgrave: So who did Black Sept. 11?

Gul: Mossad and its accomplices. The U.S. spends $40 billion a year on its 11 intelligence agencies. That's $400 billion in 10 years. Yet the Bush Administration says it was taken by surprise. I don't believe it. Within 10 minutes of the second twin tower being hit in the World Trade Center CNN said Osama bin Laden had done it. That was a planned piece of disinformation by the real perpetrators. It created an instant mindset and put public opinion into a trance, which prevented even intelligent people from thinking for themselves.

TOROTNO (FTW) - Delmart Edward "Mike" Vreeland, an American citizen whose claims to being a US Naval Lieutenant assigned to the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI) are being increasingly corroborated in open court, has been in a Canadian jail since December 6, 2000. On August 11 or 12 of 2001, the date is uncertain, after trying to verbally alert his Canadian jailers to the coming World Trade Center attacks, he wrote down key information and sealed it in an envelope which he then had placed in jailers' custody. This event is not disputed by Canadian authorities. The letter specifically listed a number of targets including The Sears Towers, The World Trade Center, The White House, The Pentagon, The World Bank, The Canadian parliament building in Ottawa and the Royal Bank in Toronto.

A chilling sentence follows the list of targets, "Let one happen. Stop the rest!!!!"

When the envelope was opened on September 14th it set off alarms in the US and Canada...

15. The Washington Times ran a story on September 10, 2001 about a 68-page study issued by the U.S. Army School for Advanced Military Studies (SAMS). The study, issued by the elite Army officer's school, detailed the dangers of a possible U.S. Army occupational force in the Mideast. Here is the article's comment about the study's view of the Israeli Mossad:

Of the Mossad, the Israeli intelligence service, the SAMS officers say: "Wildcard. Ruthless and cunning. Has capability to target U.S. forces and make it look like a Palestinian/Arab act."

The Mossad is the most ruthless terrorist organization in the entire world. It is also one of the largest and most sophisticated intelligence organizations. No other nation comes even close to its scope and power in the Mideast region. It prides itself on infiltrating every sizable militant Palestinian and Arabic organization on earth. Knowing these facts, there can be little doubt the Mossad has deeply penetrated one of the oldest, largest and what is considered the most dangerous Arabic terrorist organization on earth; bin Laden's al-Qaida.

Furthermore, the FBI and the CIA have clearly stated that the attack on the WTC and Pentagon was a huge covert operation using an international network of at least a hundred terrorists, spanning three continents. Could Mossad agents in al-Qaida as well as the rest of Mossad vast network of thousands of infiltrators and informants, not have known about the most extensive and ambitious terrorist operation in history?

16. Thousands of people made huge profits on American Airline and United as a result of put stocks. Many of them were Israelis.

This is common knowledge that have been reported extensively in the media I will just quote what two sources wrote about this:

Quote:

1. Remember right after the attacks when you couldn't watch TV for five minutes without hearing somebody say "put option"? The 9/11 insider stock trades got endless airplay on the major networks before Osama bin Laden became fixed in the popular imagination, whereupon the media bent themselves to the task of establishing his guilt. Still, even if Al Qaeda placed the 4,744 suspicious transactions, wouldn't the story still be useful, if only to further illuminate the terrorist network's money machine? Apparently not, because the story didn't just fade away over time; it suddenly vanished. Once in a while, a TV news anchorperson would assure us there had been "nothing to" the rumors while failing to explain, if this was true, where the story had come from or why it had gotten so such attention.

But conservative scandal-tracker Tom Flocco didn't give up on the hinky stock trades. In a series of articles, he follows the money back to a bigwig in the financial firm Deutsche Bank, who also was once executive director of (surprise!) the CIA. (by Mike Ward, PopMatters Columnist and Film Critic, December 2002)

2. It was reported that an unusually large amount of thousands of put stock options were purchased on United and American airlines just before 9/11. You make money on put options when the price of a stock goes down. There were also reports of unusual stock transactions in Europe related to 9/11. The CIA supposedly monitors these kinds of unusual stock transactions so that people who have insider information can possibly be identified and apprehended as potential participants in a case like 9/11. To date, the identity of the person or persons, who were involved in these option and stock transactions, have not been made public. It was also reported that a $2,500,000 profit from one of the option trades has not been claimed by the person who made that trade. The FBI can easily identify the person or persons involved in these stock trades because in order to make a stock trade, you have to open an account with a stockbroker and deposit money in your account before you trade.

It would seem easy enough for the FBI and CIA to go to the stockbrokers where these trades were made and find out who made them. This is probably the closest link that can be established to someone who was involved in 9/11 but neither the FBI nor CIA is, apparently, pursuing this. Why? October 16, 2001-- An interview with Osama bin Laden was published in a Karachi-based Pakistani daily newspaper, Ummat, on September 28, 2001. In this interview, bin Laden says of the September 11 attacks in the US:

"I have already said that I am not involved in the 11 September attacks in the United States. As a Muslim, I try my best to avoid telling a lie. I had no knowledge of these attacks, nor do I consider the killing of innocent women, children and other humans as an appreciable act. Not only is this true of the Mossad but this seems to be a consistent pattern for Jahcubites (Satanic Jews). They are very good at committing fraud and setting up others to take the blame for their deeds. Here is an example of what a Jewish Microbiologist responsible for the anthrax scare did. Notice the details in his note in trying to implicate an Arab.

Jews setting up An Arab

Los Angeles, Alta California - 2/26/2002 - (ACN) Jewish microbiologist Dr. Philip M. Zack may be behind the deadly anthrax contaminated letters that were mailed to NBC's Tom Brokaw, Senator Tom Daschle and others, according to FBI sources. In a rapidly unraveling investigation by the FBI, it appears that the "Arab-hating-Jew" was behind a vile conspiracy to frame a colleague who was born in Egypt and who worked, along with Dr. Zack, at the U.S. Army's Medical Research Institute for Infectious Diseases in Fort Detrick, Md.

La Voz de Aztlan has maintained from the beginning that the anthrax-laced letters seemed contrived and were purposely written to make them appear that they were coming from someone in the Islamic World. New information just released by the FBI confirms our suspicions. On October 9, 2001 we published "anthrax Terrorists may be Zionists" in which we outlined the reasons for our suspicions and in addition reported on a letter we received with a yellowish powder. On October 24, 2001 we published an editorial "anthrax Letter Messages Seem Contrived" in which we commented on our theory concerning the origin of the letters.

The case against Dr. Phillip M. Zack began unraveling when Egyptian-born scientist Dr. Ayaad Assaad, now a U.S. citizen, was called in by the FBI for an interview on October 2, 2001. The FBI had received an unsigned letter falsely accusing Dr. Assaad of being responsible for mailing the anthrax tainted letters. The letter stated, among other things, "Dr. Assaad is a potential biological terrorist," and "I have worked with Dr. Assaad, and I heard him say that he has a vendetta against the U.S. government and that if anything happens to him, he told his sons to carry on."

The anonymous letter falsely accusing Dr. Assaad was sent a little after the September 11 terrorist attacks but before anyone knew about the anthrax-laced letters. On October 5, 2001, about 10 days after the anonymous letter was mailed, Robert Stevens, Photo Editor of The Sun in Florida, became the first of five individuals to die from an anthrax infection...

The 4,000 hoax

[Addendum, Oct. 7, 4 p.m. ET: Osama Bin Laden essentially claimed credit for the Sept. 11 attacks in a statement recorded before Sunday's strikes on Afghanistan. "America was hit by God in one of its softest spots," he said. "If it continues with this policy [against Iraq and the PLO], the sons of Islam will not stop their struggle."]

It is an article of faith in many Muslim countries that Israel was behind the attack on the World Trade Center, with many citing as their evidence a "news report" that 4,000 Israelis called in sick from their jobs at the World Trade Center on Sept. 11. The allegation has now appeared on scores of Web sites and bulletin boards, has been reproduced in e-mails too numerous to count, and has run as fact in newspapers and news broadcasts in the Middle East. Where did this charge originate, and what path did it take around the world?

First, a question begs: Where did the precise figure of 4,000 Israelis come from? According to the Anti-Defamation League's Web site, on Sept. 11, the Israeli Embassy released a statement expressing concern about the 4,000 Israeli nationals living in New York City—few of whom actually worked in the World Trade Center. At press time, the embassy couldn't confirm this statement.

According to Nexis and the Google search engine, the first mention of Israeli involvement in the attacks came in a Sept. 17 report on Lebanon's Al-Manar Television. The Los Angeles Times reports that the terrorist group Hezbollah has free access to Al-Manar's airwaves, and the station's Web site claims that the station exists to "stage an effective psychological warfare with the Zionist enemy."

The next day at 6:26 a.m., the American Web site Information Times published an article headlined "4,000 Jews Did Not Go To Work At WTC On Sept. 11," and credited it to an "AL-MANAR Television Special Investigative Report." This was not the first time that Information Times had pointed the finger at Israel. The day after the attacks, it warned in an article that the "terrorist government of Israel ... cannot be ruled out" as a suspect. Information Times purports to be edited by Syed Adeb from the eighth floor of the National Press Club at 549 15th St. NW, Washington, DC, 20045. The Press Club says it has no such tenant and repeated messages sent to the e-mail address for Syed Abeed listed on the site bounce back as undeliverable. Directory assistance for Washington, D.C., has no listing for Information Times.

The "4,000 Jews" page is easily forwarded as e-mail, and this may explain the message's rapid dissemination.

The Information Times article makes three charges:

- 1) Citing the Jordanian newspaper Al-Watan, it alleges that "Israelis remained absent [on Sept. 11] based on hints from the Israeli General Security Apparatus, the Shabak." No media source except Al-Manar claims to have actually seen the editorial in Al-Watan, which the Jordanian Embassy's information bureau describes as an obscure newspaper with a low circulation. Al-Watan's source? Unnamed "Arab diplomatic sources." (A few newspapers called Al-Watan have Web sites—click here, here, and here to visit them—though none seem to be based in Jordan.)
- 2) Citing the Israeli newspaper Yediot Aharonot, it alleges that Israeli secret police prevented Prime Minister Ariel Sharon from traveling to New York City on Sept. 11.
- 3) Citing the Israeli newspaper Ha'aretz, it alleges that the FBI arrested five Israelis who were caught filming the WTC's smoking rubble from their office building roof. (They were being held on the charge of "puzzling behavior.")

No other media outlet that can be searched through Nexis or Google has confirmed the Information Times claims about Sharon and the five Israelis.

Within days, the story appeared in newspapers around the world. A remarkably similar version appeared under the byline of Irina Malenko in Russia's Pravda on Sept. 21. Pravda removed the article from its Web site a few hours after posting, calling it a "great and foolish mistake," but it can still be accessed here. On Sept. 21, the Chicago Tribune reported that a Pakistani paper, which it did not name, had published a similar account. In his Sept. 23 Slate "Dispatch" from Islamabad, Peter Maass reported that a local pro-Taliban politician repeated the 4,000 Jews claim at an anti-U.S. rally. On Sept. 26, Pakistan's Business Recorder printed the story about 4,000 Jews in language almost identical to the original Al-Manar article as a letter to the editor under the name "Hakeem." The same day, the New York Times reported that the allegation had appeared in a newsletter published by an Islamic charity and in lesson plans prepared by Egyptian middle-school teachers. On Oct. 4, the Chicago Tribune spotted the allegation in a Saudi paper, which it did not name. In the Oct. 8 issue of Time, Tim McGirk reported from Pakistan that the story had swept through the country's mosques and Urdu newspapers.

On Sept. 28, USA Today repeated the claim in the context that "Muslims the world over" had tried to pin the attack on Israel. USA Today did not explain the origin of the charge. The Village Voice did the same on Oct. 2. The hoax-debunking site Snopes.com assailed the story, as well. With the Web as a weapon, a lie spreads quickly and easily. With the Web as a corrective tool, the same lie becomes much easier to bat away.

If you noticed I never used any of the sources you mentioned in my report about the 4,000. I used the Jerusalem Post and quotes from an article in the NY Times. I know your thinking. Although what other news sources around the world may have reported were true, you would deny it with your favorite subtle charge of "anti-Semitism". I know you would not call the Jerusalem Post anti-Semite. Before any newspaper in the world, the Jerusalem Post reported the 4,000 number on September 12th one day after 9/11. Where did they get that number from? Please pay close attention. The Foreign Ministry compiled the number from Israeli relatives, who in the first few hours after the attack, contacted the Israeli Foreign Ministry and gave the names of Israeli friends and relatives who worked in the WTC or who had business scheduled in it or its adjacent structures. No Arab or other news source made that number up. It came straight from the horse's mouth.

When 9/11 first happened, the Israelis wanted world sympathy to also be on them so that number was truthfully reported to show that they also suffered with the Americans from the "terrorists" actions. Little did they know that their truthful reporting was really going to turn out to be a noose around their necks? With such a high number of Israelis expected in that area (from Israeli sources like relatives, etc) the following revelation by Alon Pinkas, Israel's general consul turned out to be a shock:

Quote:

But Friday, Alon Pinkas, Israel's consul general here, said that lists of the missing included reports from people who had called in because, for instance, relatives in New York had not returned their phone calls from Israel. There were, in fact, only three Israelis who had been confirmed as dead: two on the planes and another who had been visiting the towers on business and who was identified and buried. (New York Times, Sept. 22)

Except for the one Israeli visitor who may not have been informed, no Israeli was killed out of the 4,000 who were expected missing. Considering the expected numbers of Israelis working in International banking firms like Goldman Sachs, Solomon Brothers, etc. in the WTC and considering that their numbers were significantly higher than people who were killed from other nations like South Korea, Australia, Bangladesh and others, isn't it just peculiar that no Israeli died in the WTC attacks? Doesn't that make you wonder why??? Or do you blindly believe that God protected them because they are his chosen people although the majority of them are atheistic Marxists?

Any honest mind looking at these facts will conclude, "Well I don't know for sure but maybe, somehow the Israelis were warned ahead of time about this." But lookie lookie here there were two reports not from Arab newspapers, Russian newspapers or any other nation's newspapers but from good old Ha'aertz and the Washington Post that indeedy, yes sir buddy, some Israelis were warned in N.Y. and in Israel 2 hours before the attack took place. Gee whiz how come it wasn't Iraqis who were warned? Here again are some newsbytes from the stories from Ha'aertz and the Washington Post:

1. Instant Messages To Israel Warned Of WTC Attack

Officials at instant-messaging firm Odigo confirmed today that two employees received text messages warning of an attack on the World Trade Center two hours before terrorists crashed planes into the New York landmarks.

But Alex Diamandis, vice president of sales and marketing, confirmed that workers in Odigo's research and development and international sales office in Israel received a warning from another Odigo user approximately two hours prior to the first attack. (From the Washington Post's Newsbytes)

2. WORKERS AT ISRAELI OFFICE RECEIVED ADVANCE NOTICE OF THE 9-11 TERROR ATTACK

SOURCE: HA'ARETZ (ISRAELI NEWSPAPER) ENGLISH LANGUAGE EDITION

THIS STORY WAS ALSO CONFIRMED IN THE WASHINGTON POST

www.haaretzdaily.com/hasen/pages/ShArt.jhtml?itemNo=77744&contrassID=/has%5C

ODIGO SAYS WORKERS WERE WARNED OF ATTACK

By Yuval Dror Micha Macover,

Micha Macover, CEO of the company, said the two workers received the messages and immediately after the attack informed the company's management, which immediately contacted Israeli security services, which brought in the FBI. "I have no idea why the message was sent to these two workers, who don't know the sender. ....And I don't know if our information was useful in any of the arrests the FBI has made," said Macover. Odigo is a U.S.-based company whose headquarters are in New York, with offices in Herzliya.

Now this ain't no Arab paper nor is it one a 'dem' anti-Semite papers reporting this. This is straight from the holy Ha'aertz and the Washington Post. Again why does it just happen to be Israelis who were warned? Why wasn't it Russians, Chinese, Africans, Saudis, Iraqis or some other nation? Why do all of these circumstantial things surrounding 9/11 happen to involve Israelis? I am sure if these facts were true about Iraq it would be front paged news religiously known by EVERY American showing a definite tie of Iraq to 9/11. Anyway it would be stronger than any of the nonsense Bush, Powell and the U.S. government is trying to sell the world about Iraq's involvement with 9/11. After all these are the facts:

1. The WTC was attacked and thousands died.
2. Thousands of Israelis worked in firms like Goldman Sachs, Solomon Brothers, etc. in the WTC.
3. As further proof of the numbers expected to be working there the Israeli Foreign Ministry took the names of about 4,000 Israelis who were missing and originally thought to be killed.
4. None, no not one of the 4,000 Israelis who were missing or expected dead were found dead. The one found dead was a visitor. (darn...they did not get to him on time!)
5. Not in Rome, not in Paris, not in Mecca, not in Baghdad but in Israel and NY employees were warned 2 hours ahead of time about the 9/11 event. These employees just happen to be Israelis. This was not reported by Arab Newspapers at first, the very first report came from Ha'aertz and the Washington Post.

Let any of the above facts be true about Iraq. Let one and not all five be true about Iraq and I bet the next week Iraq would be no more!

What's the source of this Stock trade insider?
If people profited, how are they involved in 9/11?

The point made by Michael Shore in Jerusalem was: It was reported that an unusually large amount of thousands of put stock options were purchased on United and American airlines just before 9/11. You make money on put options when the price of a stock goes down. There were also reports of unusual stock transactions in Europe related to 9/11.

Mike Ward, PopMatters Columnist and Film Critic also reported: Still, even if Al Qaeda placed the 4,744 suspicious transactions, wouldn't the story still be useful, if only to further illuminate the terrorist network's money machine? Apparently not, because the story didn't just fade away over time; it suddenly vanished... Tom Flocco didn't give up on the hinky stock trades. In a series of articles, he follows the money back to a bigwig in the financial firm Deutsche Bank, who also was once executive director of (surprise!) the CIA.

First of all the number of put stocks purchased were unusually high. How did so many people on September 10, 2001 know that American and United Airlines stocks were going to take a dramatic drop in value the next day on 9/11? According to Mike Ward one of those people identified making money on the put stocks happened to once be an executive director of the CIA. How did he know that the stocks were going to drop in value to risk investing in them?

Along with no inquiry into the identities of people investing in put stocks the story was suddenly dropped. Very peculiar huh? I am sure if it was found out that Al-Qaeda members made money on put stocks it would be front page news. After all they and the Taliban were the ones in on this plot and would be most likely to risk investing in put stocks. This is much the same kind of thing that happened with the USS Liberty attacks and the Lavon Affair where no investigation was done and the stories suddenly dropped from mainstream media. What's common about those stories, which I suspect is common about the put stocks, is that besides the CIA, Israelis were involved. Very suspicious isn't it and I ask the same question as Michael Shore below:

It would seem easy enough for the FBI and CIA to go to the stockbrokers where these trades were made and find out who made them. This is probably the closest link that can be established to someone who was involved in 9/11 but neither the FBI nor CIA is, apparently, pursuing this. Why?

You have a lot of circumstantial evidence...yet no hard proof of forewarning.
Why were just Israelis, and not all Jews, forewarned?

I do have hard proof which was written about in the Ha'aertz and Washington Post newspapers of Israelis being warned two hours before 9/11 actually took place. Regarding why just Israelis and not all Jews were warned, you may want to ask that of whomever it was that sent the Odigo warnings to the Israelis.

If you go to the following link:

The last paragraph states the following:

Odigo usually zealously protects the privacy of its registered users, said Macover, but in this case the company took the initiative to provide the law enforcement services with the originating Internet Presence address of the message, so the FBI could track down the Internet Service Provider, and the actual sender of the original message.

Was the original sender found or did the focus on this just drop out of site as all stories involving Israeli treachery does in our Zionist controlled media? Don't you think that knowing the source for the Odigo warnings is important information? If you are really interested in knowing why only Israelis and not American Jews were warned you should track this story down and do some research into who sent the Odigo messages. Maybe then you will get an answer.

Quote:

How could 4000 people kept quiet about an advance warning?
It's impossible for 4000 people to not talk about an advance warning for 1 and a half years.

4000 people for one and a half years? That is nothing my man. Try millions of Jews for hundreds of years! They have lived among Gentiles for hundreds of years and have kept the following secrets:

1. What the Talmud teaches about Gentiles.
2. That only Jews can have a godly soul whereas non-Jews cannot -- according to their Kabala. That is why Jews are true Jews only if their mothers are Jews. The godly soul can only be inherited through the mother.

3. That the majority of “Jews” who immigrated to Israel are Khazars and have no blood or historic relations to the original 12 tribes of Israel. They are actually Caucasians who converted to Judaism in between the 6th and 7th century. As such their claim to Israel being given to them by God in the Bible is false.

How many Gentiles know these things????

Only a few out of the millions let the secret out. Brave Jews like Arthur Koestler, who wrote the book The Thirteenth Tribe to expose the Khazar history of the European Jews paid for it with his life and the life of his wife. Also people like Benjamin Freedman, Ralph Schoenman, Maya Schone, Norman Finkelstein and others are bravely exposing truths about the holocaust and the other secrets of the transgressions of the Jahcubites. Oh, and Israel Shahak who did nothing more than translate the Jewish newspapers in Hebrew written in Israel into English so that English speaking people can know what Jews are saying to each other at a time when there was a blackout of the truth about Israel and the Palestinians in the U.S. Although Jews lie to Gentiles they often tell the truth to each other. Professor Israel Shahak was persecuted for his translations while there were millions who knew the truth and kept it a secret from the Gentiles for several years. 4000 for one and a half years? Please, give me a break!!!!

The real question is what would have happened if the Israelis succeeded in blowing up the Mexican Congress? This would have been another act blamed on Al-Qaeda and Muslim terrorists. It just so happen that the Israelis were caught and found to be members of the Mossad. As in the Lavon Affair and the USS Liberty event this serves as more consistent evidence to show the pattern of Mossad deception even after 9/11. As usual the media buried this story and the Israelis were quickly deported to Israel. Oh boy what a party the media would have had if these men were Muslims.

Along with the CIA director that made a killing on put stocks, General Gul's admission about Mossad involvement, Vreeland as a member of the intelligence community knew about 9/11 and proved it. This proves without a doubt that the CIA knew about the attacks before they happened. If that's true then the 20,000 Afghans who were killed as a result 9/11, actually was murder of innocent people who were set up by those who were truly guilty. Vreeland was not a high ranking member of the intelligence community and he knew. From that alone I bet that many more CIA members knew. I find the following interesting and wonder if there is any connection:

On August 11 or 12 of 2001, the date is uncertain, after trying to verbally alert his Canadian jailers to the coming World Trade Center attacks, he wrote down key information and sealed it in an envelope which he then had placed in the jailers' custody. This event is not disputed by Canadian authorities. The letter specifically listed a number of targets including The Sears Towers, The World Trade Center, The White House, The Pentagon, The World Bank, The Canadian parliament building in Ottawa and the Royal Bank in Toronto.

A chilling sentence follows the list of targets, "Let one happen. Stop the rest!!!"

When the envelope was opened on September 14th it set off alarms in the US and Canada...

PLYMOUTH (PA) -- Two men whom police described as Middle Eastern were detained in the township by federal immigration authorities after being found with detailed video footage of the Sears Tower in Chicago.

Plymouth Police encountered the men after an officer responded to Pizzeria Uno on West Ridge Pike at 2:40 p.m. Thursday for a report of illegal dumping.

A manager there advised the police officer that a tractor-trailer was observed backed up to the dumpster at the rear of the restaurant. The manager noticed a freshly dumped pile of furniture adjacent to the Dumpster, according to police. The manager confronted the vehicle's operator, a Middle Eastern man, police said.

The man, who later identified himself as Moshe Elmakias, 30, denied that he did anything and fled the scene, heading west on West Ridge Pike... The manager was able to provide township police with the Florida registration number of the tractor-trailer and said that a sign posted on the side of the vehicle read "Moving Systems Incorporated" police said...

1. Israelis were caught celebrating and photographing each other while the WTC was burning and going down in a rubble. (true)
2. The men belonged to an Israeli company named Urban Moving Systems. (true)
3. The owner of the company Dominik Suter immediately fled to Israel (true)
4. After refusing lie detector tests for several weeks when taken each of the Israelis failed the lie detector tests. (true but it was only one who waited several weeks)
5. Under suspicious circumstances the Israelis were deported to Israel (true)
6. There were thousands of Israelis working in the WTC in high tech and high level jobs and executive positions primarily in international finance, banking and stock trading. There were several Israeli firms at the WTC. (true)
7. The Foreign Ministry of Israel received the names of 4000 Israelis believed to be working in the WTC area. (true)
8. Two employees of the Israeli company Odigo had prior warnings of the WTC attack 2 hours before it happened. (true)
9. Initially President Bush reported that 130 Israelis got killed at the WTC but after final analysis it was found out that it was only one. Whereas other nations that had less employees working at the WTC had greater number of deaths. (true)
10. There was a huge Israeli spy ring working in the U.S. and the authorities arrested many of them. The authorities in the DEA are on record stating that they believe this spy ring (art students) had something to do with 9/11. (true)
11. In the van belonging to Urban Moving Systems maps were found that the FBI says showed the Israelis had a definite involvement with 9/11. (true)
12. Israelis were caught on October 10, 2001 with explosives on them at the Mexican congress. (true)
13. General Gul, who was the director General of the Pakistani Intelligence Services and a close ally of America, said the following: "Mossad and its American associates are the obvious culprits. Who benefits from the crime? The attacks against the twin towers started at 8:45 a.m. and four flights are diverted from their assigned air space and no air traffic controller sounds the alarm. And no Air Force jets scramble until 10 a.m. That also smacks of a small scale Air Force rebellion, a coup against the Pentagon perhaps? Radars are jammed, transponders fail. No IFF -- friend or foe identification -- challenge. In Pakistan, if there is no response to IFF, jets are instantly scrambled and the aircraft is shot down with no further questions asked. This was clearly an inside job. Bush was afraid and rushed to the shelter of a nuclear bunker. He clearly feared a nuclear situation. Who could that have been? Will that also be hushed up in the investigation, like the Warren report after the Kennedy assassination? (Likely but you don't accept the source)
14. Many newspapers in the U.S. and Canada reported incidents of people having foreknowledge of 9/11. One such incident is an American spy by the name of Vreeland who was imprisoned in Canada. (true)
15. The Washington Times ran a story on September 10, 2001 about a 68-page study issued by the U.S. Army School for Advanced Military Studies (SAMS). Here is the article's comment about the study's view of the Israeli Mossad:

Of the Mossad, the Israeli intelligence service, the SAMS officers say: "Wildcard. Ruthless and cunning. Has capability to target U.S. forces and make it look like a Palestinian/Arab act." (true)
16. Thousands of people made huge profits on American Airline and United as a result of put stocks. Many of them were Israelis. (true)

📧 Re: Did the Mossad commit the terrorist acts against the US on 9/11? {Ansar Wrote}

While waiting on your response TC, I would like to go ahead by debunking some of the popular myths about 9/11. I will start with excerpts from an article written by Michael Shore in Jerusalem on January 1, 2002 titled, A View From Jerusalem, Israel.

Quote:

There are so many amazing possibilities to the true story of what really happened and who is the real mastermind behind 9/11, that some sort of independent peoples' committee (like that which revealed the TWA 800 cover-up - ed) should be set up to investigate all the facts and questions that have never been answered since the horrific attacks on 9/11. This peoples' committee could be made up of intelligent independent citizens who have no connection to anyone in the U.S. government. Here is a list of some of the questions that might be answered with such an inquiry.

2. It was reported that none of the names of the so-called Arab terrorists were on any of the passenger lists of any of the four planes involved in 9/11. Plus, the FBI and CIA with all their multi-billion dollar budgets claimed that they had no prior information that a "terrorist" act of this magnitude was about to happen. Yet within 48 hours, the FBI and CIA somehow managed to produce the pictures and names of 19 Arabs who were supposedly the "terrorists" on the planes, even though none of their names were on ANY of the passenger lists. How did they know? Just because you had an Arab name, they were able to determine that you were a "terrorist" on the planes? Plus, you may recall, when the names of the "terrorists" were first released to the press, there were reports in the media that some of the passports which the "terrorists" were using may have been stolen and the real names of the "terrorists" may have been different than the names released to the media.

3. It was reported that a number of passengers were able to make cell phone calls from the planes that were supposedly hijacked. You'll see why I used the term "supposedly hijacked" in number 4. It was also reported by some sources that these reported cell calls never showed up on the cell phone company billings. Why are hijackers letting anyone on the planes make cell phone calls to people on the ground? Can you remember any other hijacked airplane incident where people were making cell phone calls? Can you easily make cell phone calls from a plane that is 35,000 feet high and hundreds of miles away from your cell phone provider?

It was reported that the black boxes from the planes, which record conversations between the pilot and ground control, were all either destroyed or the conversations on recovered black boxes could not be released for some ridiculous reason. Number one, black boxes are built to survive the worst fiery plane crashes. By not releasing the black box communications and data, we cannot know what is really happening in the cockpit or on the aircraft and who is flying those planes. Additionally, there had to be some communication between the pilots and someone in the control towers. Yet no air traffic controller was interviewed to talk about their conversations with the pilots during the course of the "hijackings."

So, the only communication we are told about is some supposed cell phone conversations of a few passengers and a flight attendant on the planes. The only cockpit sounds that are released to the public are a few seconds of what we are told is a scuffle between passengers and hijackers in the cockpit of flight 93 that crashed in Pennsylvania. It is extremely important that any black box communication between the pilots and ground control be heard, if it still exists. This is probably the most important available part of the mystery in the puzzle. (To date, FBI Director Mueller refuses to release black box recordings saying they might impede the investigation and that they are too horrible for people to hear, especially family members. -ed)

4. It was reported there is a new technology that currently exists called onboard the UAV 'Global Hawk' platform. This technology was referred to by President Bush immediately following the 9/11 tragedy. Bush said that in the future, we must strengthen the cockpit doors and further the development of a new technology whereby a pilot on the ground can take over the controls of a hijacked aircraft and fly the plane, and land the plane, at a designated airport. Bush was referring to this technology being developed sometime in the future when he knew that this technology has been under development for many years and exists now!

In April 2001, a pilotless plane flew from the US to Australia and back to the U.S. Boeing has under development a pilotless fighter plane, whose final test was set for December 2001. With these new planes, you won't have to have live fighter pilots risking their lives in war. Plus it will save huge amounts of money training fighter pilots, which currently costs two to three million dollars, each pilot. So what does all this mean?

It means that the "Global Hawk" pilotless plane technology that Bush talked about already exists and could have been used in the 9/11 events. Guess how many planes one trained pilot can fly sitting in front of his computer screens? Four. How many planes were involved in 9/11? Four. And according to a conference of professional commercial airline pilots, the supposed Arab "hijackers" could not have flown those planes at all, or as well as they were flown, if they only attended the flight schools that were reported in the news.

So, let's look at how all the above could might into play. None of the supposed Arab "terrorist" names were on any of the passenger flight lists and the U.S. government, within 48 hours, shows us pictures of 19 Arab "terrorists" - even though the FBI and CIA said they had no prior information that the 9/11 event could happen. You really don't need any live pilots in the cockpit to fly any of the four planes. They could all be flown by one very well-trained pilot using Global Hawk technology from somewhere on the ground.

Therefore, the 19 Arab "hijackers" didn't even need to board the planes. You didn't even need "hijackers." All you need is 'Global Hawk' technology to take over control of the aircraft from the ground. By the US government refusing to release any of the pilot-to-ground control communication from the (allegedly destroyed) black boxes in the aircraft, the US government blacks out any conversation from the "hijacked" airline pilots possibly telling the control tower that the flight controls of their planes had been taken over.

You might ask, what happened to the fourth plane, Flight 93? According to one theory, Global Hawk technology malfunctioned on Flight 93. Somehow the pilots onboard were able to regain control of their aircraft. If Flight 93 lands safely on the ground, the secret of what was really happening on all four planes would be revealed. A back-up plan had to be implemented.

Flight 93 was then supposedly shot down by a US military jets. There are verifiable facts to substantiate this possibility. There were a number of eye witnesses who claimed to have seen flight 93 explode before it fell to the ground. These eye witnesses also saw a military jet in the sky near the crash site. Plus, there were reports of a small white private plane circling the crash site immediately after the crash - even though all private aircraft were supposed to be grounded at the time. Aircraft debris from flight 93 was strewn over an area six to eight miles from the crash site, which would be impossible, if as the government said that some passengers fought with the hijackers and intentionally crashed the plane to prevent the plane from hitting another terrorist target. Explaining how metal parts and other debris flew through the air and landed six to eight miles from the crash site, without there being an explosion in the air before the plane crashed to the ground, would be very hard for the government to do...Plus if the passengers did overtake the hijackers, why would they want to crash the plane? Couldn't the real flight 93 pilots fly the plane and land it safely?

Now comes the hero story from the government. This story is used to supply all the answers to all the questions about what happened on Flight 93 and to avoid any further inquiry by a gullible American public that accepts most anything their government officials say is truth. As George Bush, Sr. was quoted as saying: "Don't confuse people with the truth."

5. No US military planes were sent up to intercept any of the hijacked planes even though there were at least 30 minutes to one hour from the time it was known that the planes were hijacked. Much has been written about this by the alternative free press on the internet. It is standard procedure for military planes to be sent up if a plane is off course and the plane is not or cannot communicate with ground control. This is just normal safety protocol because if a plane starts flying in a different flight pattern, it could crash into another plane in the sky. The big question is who gave the order to not "scramble" US military jets under these emergency and highly-dangerous conditions? If you think Bin Laden could have done this sitting in some cave in Afghanistan - think again. The only people who could have pulled this one off are high-ranking government officials who were part of the plan of the real "Mastermind" behind the attacks.

Air Force Officer Disciplined for Saying
Bush Allowed September 11 Attacks

Hijacker Attended US military School

By Jerry Isaacs
21 June 2002

A US Air Force officer in California recently accused President Bush of deliberately allowing the September 11 terror attacks to take place. The officer has been relieved of his command and faces further discipline. The controversy surrounding Lt. Col. Steve Butler's letter to the editor, in which he affirmed that Bush did nothing to warn the American people because he "needed this war on terrorism," received scant coverage in the media.

Universally ignored by the press, however, was that the officer was not merely expressing a personal opinion. He was in a position to have direct knowledge of contacts between the US military and some of the hijackers in the period before the terrorist attacks that destroyed the World Trade Center and damaged the Pentagon.

Lieutenant Colonel Butler, who wrote in a letter to the editor of the Monterey County Herald charging that "Bush knew about the impending attacks," was vice chancellor for student affairs at the Defense Language Institute in Monterey, California - a US military facility that one or more of the hijackers reportedly attended during the 1990s.

In his May 26 letter to the newspaper, Butler responded to Bush supporters, who had written the paper opposing the congressional investigation into the September 11 events. He wrote:

"Of course President Bush knew about the impending attacks on America. He did nothing to warn the American people because he needed this war on terrorism. His daddy had Saddam and he needed Osama. His presidency was going nowhere. He wasn't elected by the American people, but placed in the Oval Office by a conservative supreme court. The economy was sliding into the usual Republican pits and he needed something on which to hang his presidency.... This guy is a joke. What is sleazy and contemptible is the President of the United States not telling the American people what he knows for political gain."

The letter provoked immediate retaliation against the 24-year Air Force veteran. Butler was transferred from the Monterey installation and threatened with court martial under Article 88 of the military code, which prohibits officers from publicly using "contemptuous words" against the president and other officials.

The latest information to come out is that Stanley Hilton who was Bob Dole's Chief of Staff, a Harvard Graduate and schoolmate of Paul Wolfowitz is representing 400 families suing Bush for Engineering 9/11. This ain't no pie in the sky empty headed light weight. This was a key leader of the Republican Party making these claims. The lawsuit was filed last May and Mr. Hilton claims that he has definite evidence showing that the Bush Cabal Engineered 9/11. I will post part of the interview below but when you read it lo and behold guess which country's secret service agency is mentioned. No, dummy not Iraq's! No, not Iran's! I will give you one more try. Gee whiz get a brain in your head it is not North Korea! It is the Mossad. The following is a brief excerpt from the interview but the whole interview can be found here

Alex Jones Radio Show
Interview of Stanley Hilton
March 11, 2003

AJ: He has a busy schedule. He's been in court, all last week and all this week. We had him on about a year ago. He's Stanley Hilton. He was brutally attacked by the big government pimps Hannity and Colmes. He was a senior advisor for Bob Dole, counsel for Bob Dole and others in the Republican Party. He's an expert on government-sponsored terrorism and has written a book about it, throughout history. And he now has new revelations never before revealed from his depositions of witnesses involved in and around 9/11. He represents over 400 of the victims of 9/11's families and he has been given almost no attention. While some of the other groups headed by well-known PR bureaucrats, we've had them on the show, as well, are trying to suppress this information. Joining us is Stanley Hilton. We are honored to have you on the show Stanley.

SH: Glad to be here.

AJ: Tell us just a little bit about yourself, your lawsuit; recap what we covered last year and in the last year. Tell us what's developed with the lawsuit and the new revelations that you told me about on the phone.

SH: Well, we filed the lawsuit last May against Bush and Cheney and Rumsfeld and several other of the rest of the terrorists that run the U.S. government for complicity in causing and also in aiding and abetting the 9/11 attacks, in order to promote their political agenda. And, we are in the process, you know these lawsuits, they come and they go in terms of level of activity. And most of it is done, you know, in confidential, called discovery, litigation that is depositions under oath, battles in court to get documents. We are facing very strong resistance from the government. They are claiming national security over everything. They claim they don't want to release documents, etc. But I represent the people who were victimized by what the government did. I'm also challenging the constitutionality of the so-called USA PATRIOT Act, they call it; the anti-patriot act is what I call it. And Patriot Act I and II, with II in the wings, which the government plans to introduce this year, which will be even more severe than Patriot Act I. And this new one, Patriot Act II, they are going to give Bush the right to declare any American citizen a "enemy combatant" arbitrarily. And then take away your citizenship. This will give the government the power to literally strip any American of citizenship if Bush says you're an enemy combatant, i.e.: political opponent of the government. So anyway, we saw some very interesting documents and memoranda, including several of those advisors around Bush, namely Wolfowitz, Wormser, Feith, Perle, the rest of them. And they actually wrote these memos several months before 9/11, in which they fervently wished for a "Pearl Harbor type incident" to give them the shock value that would enable them to ramp through their agenda.

AJ: And this you told me last week before this was on ABC News that you have gotten some of this information through depositions and some other little tidbits that haven't been disclosed. But also, you talked about how you deposed; you got the marriage certificates, the evidence, and the photographs – a woman who was married to one of the hijackers. You talked to what you said were six or eight people who were connected to them. And then we have the news articles where the FBI gave them homes, paid their rent, followed them around. We know Israel was involved in similar things. Can you speak to that please?

SH: Yes, I do have a witness who was married, she's an American woman, but she was married to one of the hijackers and she knew about seven of them. She met seven of them. Essentially these Arab hijackers were double agents. That is, they were operating inside the U.S. for ten to fifteen years in "cells". Some of them used the term al Qaeda, they've used other terms. Al Qaeda is just a word. That means nothing. You could call them the Muslim Brotherhood, the Army of God; they go by all sorts of names. But what they are is a series of cells that have been aided and abetted by the U.S. Government. This woman was involved also, married to him at the time of the 1993 World Trade Center first bombing and the Oklahoma City bombing when her "ex-husband" actually traveled to Oklahoma City several weeks before the bombings. And they were involved, apparently, in that.

But what we have here is double agents. In that they nominally appear to be Arab fanatics. But one of the points that she stressed is they are really not Muslims. They are more interested in Playboy than in the Koran. I mean these people drink. They are very secular. They are not the fanatical Muslim zealots that the Bush criminals would lead us to believe is what's operating here. What they are is they receive regular payments from the U.S. Government. They have been recruited by the CIA, FBI, counter-intelligence, and so-forth and paid money and allowed to exchange information with U.S. government agents about various activities going on and....

AJ: Let me stop you right there Mr. Hilton. Everything you said was already backed up by mainstream reports. You've gotten it now, in sworn testimony in depositions under oath. But something that everybody wants to ignore is that three of the hijackers, at least, were trained at Pensacola Naval Air Station not at a local airfield – on the base, by the government, at least. Now we find out that eight of the hijackers under names we heard are still alive in the Middle East, on television doing interviews. You know, their faces, their names, same people. We have then Mohamed Atta being sent over to the Defense Language School at Monterrey. You talked to Steven Butler.

SH: Yeah.....

Pouring Salt In the Wound Debunking!

Quote:

The Magic Passport Theory.

We can now add Mohamed Atta's reality-defying passport to the Arlen Specter Gallery of Improbable Projectiles. This incriminating item was thrown intact from a cataclysmic fireball and miraculously plucked from 1.6 million tons of debris in a matter of hours. The corporate media rarely mention the unlikelihood of this. Many in the alternative press, though, are unafraid to draw an obvious, albeit taboo, inference: that the Atta passport is planted evidence. According to Washington, DC, peace activist John Judge, other potential plants include the Arabic-language flight manuals left in one of the hijackers' cars (with note: The discussion of the flight manuals begins at around 13:30). These manuals could serve no useful purpose at such a late stage unless the hijackers planned to finish learning how to fly during a half-hour ride to the airport. But as deliberately placed articles, they are as if a signed diary called "My Plan to Kill the President" had been unearthed in Lee Harvey Oswald's flat. Also high on the possible planted evidence list is a spiritual manifesto for the Al Qaeda kamikaze pilots, which, to journalist Robert Fisk, sounds an awful lot like it was written by a God-fearing Christian.

An About Face Debunking!

Former South African resistance leader and President, Nelson Mandela, announced a high-profile and deeply considered "about-face on bin Laden," reported first on South Africa's News24 television on New Year's Day.

Mandela repudiated and apologized for his former, controversial statement holding Osama bin Laden and al-Qaeda responsible for the attacks, as "one-sided and over-stated." He said he would be arranging meetings with Muslim leaders in South Africa to personally convey this message"called by News24 a "highly unusual" reversal of view by the most widely respected of African leaders. " We are also writing to President Bush," Mandela announced, "to appropriately qualify the view we previously expressed to him in person and in correspondence.

 Re: Did the Mossad commit the terrorist acts against the US on 9/11? {Ansar Wrote}

The Real Reasons For 9/11 Debunking!

Quote:

According to people like Dick Eastman and others there were four goals that the 9/11 attacks were meant to accomplish. The four goals were:

1. Gain control of $6 trillion worth of oil and natural gas in central Asia. This oil is associated with the Caspian Sea and the countries surrounding it where pipelines are to be laid.
2. Win back support for the increasingly unpopular Sharonist policies in Israel and provide a basis for a mass invasion of occupied Palestine.
3. Allow certain people to profit from the opium trade of the Northern Alliance drug lords and the money-laundering through global investment channels that the opium trade and the derivative heroin trade supports. If you noticed that during the rule of the Taliban the opium trade nearly disappeared. As soon as the Northern Alliance were put back into power the trade picked up again.
4. Clear people arraigned before a grand jury on charges of fixing gold prices, illegal involvement in oil swaps between Kazakhstan and (sanctioned) Iran, and bribery in cases where all incriminating documentary evidence was stored in FBI files and data banks in one of the twin towers of the WTC.

I want to add a fifth goal that was not mentioned:

5. Start a war between Christianity and Islam by blaming the religion of Islam for the 9/11 incident and terrorist acts throughout the world.

Analysis:

With the placement of the puppet government in Afghanistan and ex-Unocal Adviser Hamid Karzi as head, with U.S. troops firmly in place in Central Asian countries like Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan, Republic of Georgia and others, with the American people giving Bush the green light for a "war on terrorism" which is really a war for oil I would say that goal number one is accomplished and is successfully being exploited. Bush's "oil patch" people like Condoleeza Rice, Cheney, and Khalilzad are poised and ready to go after the multi-trillion dollar deal. So on a whole, goal one is proceeding with success.

Goals 3 and 4 are also successful. Opium production has increased as a result of eliminating the Taliban and Alan Greenspan and others are not being implicated for any money scams. Recently it has been reported that Afghanistan has recaptured the title as the world's number one Opium producer. Goal 2 although accomplished did not achieve the results expected.

Yes...under the pretense of fighting terrorism, the Israelis were able to conduct a mass invasion into Palestinian villages. This was their payment for the role they played in helping to ignite the 9/11 attacks that triggered and gave the justification for all of the four goals above to be acted upon. Let's not forget also the role they played in controlling the media to keep the finger pointed at Bin Laden and not allow any intelligent scrutinization to go on. The fallout the Israelis are receiving may be less than what was expected by them. They felt that the 9/11 attacks would so enrage Americans and the world that everyone will be in an uproar and would support whatever heinous actions the Israelis would do against the Palestinian "terrorists." Except for the Christian Zionists and ignorant, uninformed Americans the world has joined in unison to condemn them. In the court of world opinion the Israelis are no better off today than they were before the 9/11 attacks and the condemnation in Durban, South Africa of Zionism as racism. So yes they got their invasion into the Palestinian territory but they are still seen as being ugly to the rest of the world.

Goal number 5 is actively being pursued. Christian Zionists and members in government has openly declared Islam as the enemy. They have started a huge smear campaign in print and in the media to discredit the Quran, Prophet Muhammad and all Muslims. They have even openly admitted that they will also lie to accomplish their goals. Innocent Muslims are being harassed and locked up for no reason under the powers granted by the Patriot Act. Warlike declarations from leaders in religion and government are being made against Muslims and Muslim nations. Lately one of the leading Preachers in Christianity has publicly called the Prophet of Islam a terrorist. Despite the huge onslaught on Islam, the religion continues to grow. It is the fastest growing religion in the world and since 9/11 it has experienced the largest number of conversions to Islam in the history of the religion in the U.S. Thomas Jefferson, one of America's founding fathers and considered to be the leader among them, publicly declared and it is documented, that he was well acquainted with the Quran and that he wanted Muslims to be a part of the new nation. Although he has gotten his wish the majority of Americans are still very ignorant of the Quran and Islam.

Despite the numerous violations of UN resolutions by Israel and the confirmed presence of weapons of mass destruction the country being threatened with war is Iraq. The UN has agreed on the conditions required by Iraq when Inspectors are sent in. These conditions by the way are deliberately set up to humiliate Iraq and assure their non-compliance so that war will be inevitable. Iraq is in a position of "damned if you do and damned if you don't". The smear campaign against Muslims and their religion by the mainstream media has successfully demonized Arabs and Muslims. When thousands are killed by the American onslaught in Iraq the American public has already been de-sensitized to feel no sympathy for the innocent lives lost. The average American will view the massacres as necessary killings of "Moslem terrorists".

Along with the above there is also the request for inquiry into the 9/11 attacks by Congresswoman Cynthia McKinney from Georgia. She claims that corporations close to the Bush administration like the Carlyle Group, may have benefited from the 9/11 attacks and Bush's "never ending war on terrorism". Bush's father is a member of the Carlyle Group and among other things the Carlyle Group is in the weapons industry. As a result of her request for an "inquiry" she has come under the most vehement attacks from Government figures and the press. But surprisingly a lot of people have come to her aid. But alas she was defeated in her bid for re-election last August by her AIPAC supported opponent. So as a present brave voice in government, hers has been stilled.

The past developments implicating Bush having prior knowledge of the 9/11 attacks is very interesting. I agree with many that this may be a black mail scare tactic by the Jews against Bush. Although quite complacent with most of their plans, Bush may not have been complacent with ALL of the Israeli plans. We also see that after his last speech blaming the Palestinians and demanding a new leader that the "noise" about Bush's involvement with 9/11 died out. This has played out very well for Bush. He is portrayed in the most positive way in the media and indeed he is considered to be a very popular president. The November wins by a majority of Republicans are being credited by many to Bush. It seems that as long as Bush follows the whims of his Israeli masters things will go well for him and the Republican party.

If true about the stocks, since it hasn't been verified, how does this tell us that the Mossad committed the acts, when it seems to implicate not them, but the CIA?

As for your general, he is not an objective source, even if he did say that, since he's ISI.

We all know the ISI's relations to Al-Qaida and the Taliban.

His words are for public consumption to protect the ISI, and by accusing others, he only placates his constituency.

Along with the CIA director that made a killing on put stocks, General Gul's admission about Mossad involvement, Vreeland as a member of the intelligence community knew about 9/11 and proved it. This proves without a doubt that the CIA knew about the attacks before they happened. If that's true the 20,000 Afghans who were killed for 9/11 was murder of innocent people who were set up by those who were truly guilty. Vreeland was not a high ranking member of the intelligence community and he knew. From that alone I bet that many more CIA members knew. Ansar, I'll make it simple.

It's up to you to prove that the Mossad committed the acts on 9/11.

It's not up to me to prove that someone else did.

So, to prove that they did, please give us a timeline of what happened that day, how the acts were committed, and who committed them.

You said the Mossad did it, so prove it.

So far all we have are 5 Israelis from an Israeli moving company that were caught cheering the towers coming down.

Thanks for accepting the 17 facts I presented as true! I knew you couldn't refute them. They were well presented and the sources quoted were impeccable.

Before making my conclusions I want to include one more piece of evidence to show Israel's role in spying on America and damaging America's interest along with the complicity given to Israel even after the damaging facts about what Israel has done is known:

Quote:

Israel: A nation that spies on America and sells our secrets to our worst enemies

In the 1980s, Israel recruited an American Jew, Jonathan Pollard, to spy against the United States. After his apprehension, Israeli officials at first claimed he was a "rogue agent," but later they admitted that Pollard was working for them from the beginning. Other than the Jewish spies, Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, who gave our atom bomb secrets to the Soviets, probably no spies have ever done more damage to our country than that which was done by this single Israeli spy: Jonathan Pollard.

Israel's use of Pollard's information not only destroyed our intelligence operations in the Mideast; it practically destroyed our intelligence apparatus in the Soviet Union and the Eastern Bloc. Many of America's most loyal and best agents in the Communist world were executed because Israel sold or bartered Pollard's stolen information to the Soviets. Israel would not even allow us to debrief the Mossad agents who handled the Pollard spying so as to help determine the full extent of the damage done to the United States and the dangers posed to American agents overseas.

Some of the enormously sensitive secrets stolen by Pollard may have been either sold, or bartered, by Israel to the Soviet Union.

A number of key CIA agents in the East Bloc were allegedly executed as a result of Pollard's spying. The KGB likely gained access to top-secret U.S. codes - either directly from Israel, or through spies in Israel's government. In short, Pollard's treachery caused one of the worst security disasters in modern U.S. history...

So, Israel, which receives billions of American aid, has treacherously spied on and harmed the very security of the United States. To further demonstrate their contempt for us, they even bartered the top secret information they had stolen from us – to America's worst enemies. Even after Israel's public relations apologies for the Pollard spying, it has continued to spy on us. The Los Angeles Times in 1997 reported that an American Jew named David A. Tenenbaum “admitted to divulging secrets to Israel.” To quote the Los Angeles Times, “A civilian engineer working at an Army command facility near Detroit has admitted divulging classified military information to Israeli officials over the last 10 years.”

Even after Israel proved its willingness to spy on us and critically damage America’s intelligence operations, President Clinton appointed a dedicated, Zionist Jew to Chairman of the National Security Council, the highest intelligence position in the White House. Even the Israeli daily Maariv referred to Berger as a “warm Jew,” meaning that he is devoted to Israel first. Appointing Berger as National Security Council chief after the Pollard Spy Case is pure insanity.

The fact that Israel could commit these outrages against the United States without suffering scathing media attacks or even the end of aid to Israel shows their extreme power over us and the treason that reaches into the highest echelons of the American establishment. It is no wonder that Ariel Sharon could make the following statement to Simon Peres when he suggested that Israel might lose American aid if it did not pull back recent Israeli incursions. Sharon responded:

Every time we do something you tell me America will do this and will do that . . . I want to tell you something very clear: Don't worry about American pressure on Israel. We, the Jewish people, control America, and the Americans know it. ---Ariel Sharon, October 3, 2001

It is not only Jonathan Pollard who has committed treason against America. All those in the American government who would continue to monetarily and militarily support a foreign nation that spies on us and severely damages our intelligence operations (along with causing the deaths of American agents) have committed treason against the United States of America. In response to these ongoing acts of treachery against the United States, a truly patriotic American Government would have (at the very least) ended our support for Israel. Supporting a foreign nation after it willfully commits such acts of treachery against America is nothing less than treason.

I mentioned the following in my opening statement: The track record of the Israelis in conducting terrorist activities and causing others to take the blame as well as using the American media to shield their dirty deeds should not be ignored.

The above post also mentioned: Even after Israel proved its willingness to spy on us and critically damage America's intelligence operations, President Clinton appointed a dedicated, Zionist Jew to Chairman of the National Security Council, the highest intelligence position in the White House. Even the Israeli daily Maariv referred to Berger as a "warm Jew," meaning that he is devoted to Israel first. Along with all the evidence presented showing Israeli Mossad spy activities and "tie-ins" to 9/11 as so readily agreed to by thoughtcriminal, it must boggle the mind as to how the Americans can be so docile and allow and even reward Israel for its treacherous actions against the United States. Why don't the American people rise up and remove this cancer from their midst? The reason why this don't happen can also be seen in the time of Christ. One word explains it. Propaganda. Through propaganda Jesus was crucified and the masses of people were made to believe that he was an enemy and threat to them. Today this same tactic is being used to keep the American people docile and fully in support of Israel despite all the treacherous actions Israel has taken against us. It's like a one-two punch on the American people with the second punch coming from the media to knock the American people's brains out. The ones who control the propaganda in the U.S. are the same Satanic Jews. Everything Americans see, hear and read is slanted. Important news stories like the Israeli spies, the attempted blowing up of the Mexican Congress, the put stock purchases and even historical truths like the Lavon Affair and the USS Liberty attack are either dropped or slanted to keep the real truth from getting to the American people. Who are these people in the media controlling the information Americans are exposed to? Here is a listing and from the names and positions they hold I am sure that you will say, "yep I see why!"

David Schneiderman owns the Village Voice and a number of other "alternative" weeklies.

Columnist William Safire, Tom Freidman, Charles Krauthammer, Richard Cohen, Jeff Jacoby, are among the most widely syndicated columnists.

There are a number of widely syndicated talk show hosts such as Michael Savage (ABC) on more than 100 stations, Michael Medved, 124 stations, and Dennis Prager who has an Israeli flag on his website. Others include Ron Owens, Ben Wattenberg, and former ZOA official Jon Rothman, all in San Francisco on ABC.

In Hollywood, which was founded by Jews, there is of course, Stephen Spielberg, David Geffen, and Jeffrey Kranzberg of Dream Works, Eisner of Disney, Amy Pascal, chair of Columbia, and many, many more.

For the intellectuals, we have NPR, with pundit Daniel Schorr and weekend hosts Scott Simon and Liane Hansen, Robert Segal, Susan Stanberg, Eric Weiner, Daniel Lev, Linda Gradstein (a well-known speaker at pro-Israel events) covering Jerusalem, Mike Schuster (whose soft-ball interview with Ariel Sharon after Sabra and Shatila should have brought him before the court of Hamarabi). Brook Gladstein.

And that's just for starters. From the boss to the delivery it's an impressive list. While they certainly can't be put in the same box when it comes to Israel, they more or less guarantee that there will be limits to any criticism they may make of Israel".

I stated the following in my opening statement: From the evidences I am aware of I firmly believe that the Israelis and crooked elements in our government engineered 9/11 to create a Pearl harbor type of event that would benefit the American Israeli dupes and their Jewish masters. Not only do I believe the Satanic Jews engineered 9/11 to be a Pearl Harbor type of action to spawn the war on terrorism and the global aggression against Iraq and the Muslim world, I also know from history that WW1 and WW2 were instigated by them through (1.) The Zimmerman Letter in WW1 and (2.) the actual Pearl Harbor in 1941. Let's look at the facts behind all these claims. This will all fit in with my charge of a consistent history of the Jews using treachery to get the Gentiles to go to war for them:

Marcus Eli Ravage the authentic Jewish Biographer for the Rothschild Family wrote in an article in The Century Magazine, January 1928, volume 115, No. 3. pp 346-350 about the influence of the Jews on the gentiles:

Quote:

---

"We are intruders. We are disturbers. We are subverters. We have taken your natural world, your ideals, your destiny, and played havoc with them. We have been at the bottom of not merely the latest Great War [World War One] but of nearly all your wars, not only of the Russian but of nearly every other major revolution in your history. We have brought discord and confusion and frustration into your personal and public life. We are still doing it. No one can tell how long, we shall go on doing it."

---

This amounts to an admission. Now Mr. Ravage was no light weight. He was the authentic Jewish Biographer for the most powerful financial dynasty in the world, the Rothschild. Was he making idle statements or was he boldly exposing truth? To read the whole article you can go here. Let's look at the circumstances surrounding WW1 and WW2 to see if he was telling the truth. I will start with WW1:

Quote:

"Zionist influence began to gain momentum during WWI in Europe. The first two years of the war were basically a series of pitched battles with hardly any movement by either side on the western front. The cost in lives and materiel was staggering and both England and Germany were ready to negotiate a peace treaty, Germany probably because of the cost; Britain because it was losing. Up to that point, America was completely neutral, if not pro-German.

"Here, we must introduce Chaim Weizmann who ultimately became the first president of Israel. He was born in Russia and emigrated to Britain where he worked as a research chemist in Manchester on the synthesis of acetone, apparently an important ingredient in the manufacture of explosives. He was intelligent, a fanatical Zionist, witty and charming, and made many friends amongst the elite, including CP Scott, the editor of the Manchester Guardian, prime minister

David Lloyd George and Sir Mark Sykes. In Chaim Weizmann's diary we find a statement indicating that in 1916, German Zionist (some of whom were in high places in imperial Germany) had been approached by the German government in the hope that they would serve as intermediaries in peace negotiations with the British via the British Zionists. Both the British and the Germans were tired of the war and it was actually the Kaiser who put out peace feelers to the Allies. Preliminary contacts were made but nothing came of them. At this time, some German Jews were influential and powerful, and had been accepted into German society. In fact, Germany was the first European country to give the Jews some degree of civil rights back in the 1820s. Germany, at that time, had a liberal policy towards Jewish immigration; they accepted thousands of eastern Jewish ("Die Ostjuden") from the pogroms in Poland and Russia.

"In 1914, the war began in Europe as a purely European affair between the Central Powers (Germany, the Austro-Hungarian Empire and their side-kick, the Ottoman empire) against the Allies – Britain, France and Russia; America was not a party to the quarrel. By 1916, the cost in lives and material was staggering and both sides were ready to negotiate a peace treaty. Incidentally, not one Allied soldier fought on German soil until America entered the war. Up to that point, a peace-loving President Woodrow Wilson was neutral and regarded the Germans as his friends...

"Clearly, America did not want any part of the European war, in spite of the endless barrage of anti-German propaganda coming out of Britain and from George Creel's American propaganda apparatus, the CPI...

"At this point, Wilson had to contend with three factors, the growing American anti-German frenzy being whipped up by George Creel and his congeners, the increasing activity of German U-boats which were indiscriminately sinking all ships which might be bringing supplies to a beleaguered England, and the Mexican problem. The Germans did not want to be entangled in a war with America and had made contingency plans for that eventuality. In a cabinet meeting at Pless Castle on January 9th, 1917, the German Chancellor had stated unequivocally that if the Kaiser command that a ruthless U-boat war be launched, he, the Chancellor, would "endeavor to succeed in keeping America out of it." But he was not sanguine: "We will have to calculate upon America's entrance into the war against us." And the U-boats began to prowl the shipping lanes on the orders of the Kaiser while American vessels foolishly ignored German warnings to avoid those lanes. The Mexican dictator, Huerta, was a thorn in Wilson's flesh – he was playing the Germans against the Americans. Together with the Germans, he broadcast ominous rumblings about the imminent involvement of Japan which both Germany and Mexico felt would pose a grave threat to the United States. This led the diplomatically inept president into the Veracruz debacle which spurred the Germans further to arm Huerta, promising him revenge for the American capture of Texas. Eighteen American sailors died in the attack on Vera Cruz for no good reason, a tragedy which determined Wilson yet more strongly to avoid war if possible.

"The reasons given for the entry of the United States into the war were that two or three American lives were lost in the sinking of the S.S. Sussex, the act itself being a contravention of international law. To this writer, it seems hardly likely that the proto-pacifist, Woodrow Wilson, would declare war over such an incident.

"What in fact precipitated American participation in the war was the disclosure to the British in January 1917 of highly confidential, top-secret telegram, known as the “Zimmerman Telegram”, sent in an unbreakable code by Arthur Zimmerman, the foreign secretary, from Berlin to Mexico. It was purely a contingency step, seeking a Mexican alliance in the event that America declared war on Germany. No more than that.

“Here, we must return to the Zionist movement. The sequence of events seems to be as follows: Zionists (some of whom were in high places in Imperial Germany) had been approached by the German government as early as 1916 in the hope that they would serve as intermediaries in peace negotiations with the British via the British Zionists. Both sides were aware that the Zionists were still in close touch with one another even though their countries were at war. People like Walther Rathenau, the industrialist, the Warburgs, the biggest merchant bankers in Germany, the Rothschild, Bleichroder, the banker to the Imperial Family, and the Balin family, owners of two major steamship lines were all Jewish. Actually, they were culturally, socially and intellectually more German than the Germans, a fact carefully noted by the German intellectual elite and the Prussian Junkers. Their Jewish lineage was a social blemish which could tactfully be overlooked when necessary.

“Preliminary contacts were made between German and British Zionists, as the Germans had requested, but the expected movement towards peace did not emerge from those contacts but rather a move towards war. Since both sides had wanted a peace treaty, this outcome was surprising and the reason for this remained unknown until the Paris peace conference. What apparently happened was that in January 1917, a German Zionist with access to Zimmerman Telegram sent the un-coded, plain text to the British Zionists who had easy access to the British prime minister David Lloyd George and his close associates, C.P. Scott of the Manchester Guardian and Sir Mark Sykes who were all fervent Zionists, having been converted to the idea by Chaim Weizmann himself. At this point the British had still not decoded the Zimmerman note. It seems likely that the British Zionists decided to provide the prime minister with the decoded text of the Zimmerman Note which the British could then send to the Americans. It would be sufficiently inflammatory to compel Woodrow Wilson to declare war on Germany, come to the rescue of Britain and ensure the defeat of the Kaiser. But both the German and British Zionists wanted something in return – a British promise to give them Palestine; there could be no other (or lesser) motive for their betrayal of Imperial Germany.

This promise would be in total agreement with British colonialist aims. The British were informed of the existence of the Telegram late in January 1917 and within a couple of weeks, Weizmann submitted a memorandum to Mark Sykes entitled outline of a Program for the Jewish Resettlement of Palestine in Accordance with the Aspirations of the Zionist Movement. A month later, the British Zionists met with members of the British government and handed over the decoded Zimmerman Telegram after the British had studied the Weizmann document and had agreed to issue a declaration of support for the establishment of the Jewish state. Less than two months after this meeting, on April 6th. 1917, President Wilson, after consulting his closest advisors, including Justice Brandeis, declared war on Germany.

On November 2nd, 1917, the Balfour Declaration was issued. In a letter to Lord Rothschild. Lord Balfour wrote: “His Majesty’s Government view with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavors to facilitate the achievement of this object...provided that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine.” Within days, Lloyd George ordered General Allenby to capture Palestine from the Ottomans.

This sequence and timing of events is most suggestive. If indeed, as Barbara Tuchman claims, the Allies had decoded the Zimmerman Note when it was first transmitted, would the British not have sent a copy to Washington immediately in January 1917 and provoked Wilson into declaring war much earlier? That this didn't happen suggests that Britain in fact had not decoded the message and that the Zionists had held back the un-coded version until after Weizmann had obtained the promise of Palestine from the British government. Meanwhile, Wilson was well aware of the turmoil in Mexico-President Carranza's mob skirmishing with Pancho Villa's mob while ex-dictator Huerta still retained strong German support as the Imperial government tried to embroil America in a war with Mexico and to lure Japan into attacking lower California. Yet aside from a few minor incidents here and there, Wilson had avoided involving the US in a fully-fledged war against Mexico. And for well over a year, he had refused to declare war on Germany in spite of repeated attacks on American shipping. Only after the Zimmerman telegram was sent to Washington did he request Congress to declare war on Imperial Germany.

In the House of Commons, Winston Churchill, the colonial secretary in 1922, hinted at the reason for Britain's having issued the Balfour Declaration. He said that it should not be thought that with the Balfour Declaration Britain gave the Jews something and got nothing in return. Churchill doesn't say what it was that Britain got in return from the Jews but it must have been something pretty important, if not vital, for Britain to risk its substantial interest which depended on Arab goodwill. Lloyd George described the Balfour Declaration as a thanks offering for Weizmann's war efforts in the production of acetone. To the logical reader, this seems a reward totally disproportionate to Weizmann's accomplishment. Would England have given Bermuda to Watson and Crick for discovering the structure of DNA? Would America have given Guam to Werner Von Braun for his great contribution to the American space program? One has sought high and low for a reasonable and logical explanation for the Balfour Declaration and the sequence of events described above seems to be the most plausible.

 Re: Did the Mossad commit the terrorist acts against the US on 9/11? {Ansar Wrote}

World War 2

This is from the article whose link is WW2 and written by Dr. Albert D Pastore PhD:

Quote:

ZIONISM AND WORLD WAR II

Let us fast forward our time machine to the early 1930's. Again, there is no need for a detailed analysis and debate of the causes and major events of World War II. The purpose here is to again illustrate yet another case of selfish Zionist agitation for American entry into a war.

The German people were bitterly resentful of not only the Zionist role in bringing about their defeat in World War I, but also over the brutal monetary reparations which had been imposed upon them by certain Zionist bankers who helped craft the brutal Treaty of Versailles after the war. Stripped of formerly German territory, and with the German economy in ruins, the people of Germany elected Adolf Hitler as their Chancellor leader. Hitler and the Nazi party soon seized control of the German media, banks, and universities away from the influential Zionists who reigned supreme in those institutions.

Almost immediately, Zionists all over the world began to agitate for action against Germany. Boycotts of German imports were imposed and calls for the UK and USA to take immediate action against Germany began to emanate from Zionist circles. On March 24, 1933, The Daily Express of England carried the bold headline; "Judea Declares War on Germany. Jews of All the World Unite in Action." The front page story revealed that the Zionists had announced a concerted worldwide effort to isolate Germany and turn other nations against her.

The following year, Zionist political leader Vladimir Jabotinsky wrote:

"The fight against Germany has now been waged for months by every Jewish community; on every continent... We shall start a spiritual and material war of the world against Germany. Our Jewish interests call for the complete destruction of Germany."

A few years later, Lord Beaverbrook, a British newspaper magnate issued this warning about the Zionist influence over the British press. Beaverbrook warned:

"There are 20,000 German Jews who have come here to England. They all work against an agreement with Germany. The Jews have got a big position in the press here. Their political influence is driving us into the direction of war."

In 1939, Germany and Poland went to war over disputed territory that was taken away from Germany by the Versailles Treaty of 1918. Under the phony pretext of protecting Poland, Great Britain and France immediately declared war on Germany. Beaverbrook's prediction was realized.

In the United States, the Zionist Mafia again went to work on a US president. The names of the players had changed but the game was still the same. It was Franklin Delano Roosevelt's turn to deliver the US into another European war. Patriotic Americans such as famed aviator Charles Lindbergh saw this and tried to warn the American people that Zionist media influence was intending to drive us into another World War. Said Lindbergh:

"I am not attacking the Jewish people. But I am saying that the leaders of both the British and the Jewish races, for reasons which are as understandable from their viewpoint as they are inadvisable from ours, for reasons which are not American, wish to involve us in the war."

Because of strong public anti-war sentiment, FDR and his Zionist allies had a hard time dragging the US into the European war. Then another "incident" came along at Pearl Harbor in 1941. Japan and Germany were bound to a mutual defense agreement, which meant that war with Japan would automatically mean war with Germany. FDR embargoed Japan's oil supply in the hopes of forcing Japan to attack Pearl Harbor. Overwhelming evidence from government documents clearly shows that FDR had advance knowledge of the Japanese attack and allowed it to happen so that he could drag the US into World War II.

As was the case in WWI, US entry the war meant another defeat of Germany. Hours before committing suicide on April 30, 1945, Adolf Hitler dictated his last will and political testament. In it he placed responsibility for WWII on the Zionist Mafia - or, as he called it - "International Jewry and its henchmen". It's no surprise that Hitler would make such a claim. However, his final accusation of the Zionists does parallel the statements made by Jabotinsky, Lindbergh, Beaverbrook, Joe Kennedy, and many others. In the final writing of his life, Hitler wrote:

"It is untrue that I or anyone else in Germany wanted war in 1939. It was wanted and provoked solely by international statesmen either of Jewish Origin or working for Jewish interests... Nor had I ever wished that after the appalling first World War, there would ever be a second against either England or America."

Regardless of your view of World War II and whether or not the USA belonged in the fight, the essential point which cannot be refuted is again this: years before World War II had even started, the Zionists had yet again demonstrated that they had no aversion to sending Americans to die for their own interests.

My opening statement said the following:

Quote:

---

My aim in this cage match is to show the undeniable mountain of evidence pointing to Israeli involvement with 9/11. This evidence, if was pointed to at any other country in the world would make Americans demand en-mass a full investigation of the facts surrounding 9/11 and immediate cooling of relations between that country and the U.S...

---

I was very clear on what I was trying to prove. Contrary to thoughtcriminal's poor reading of English I never said I was going to prove that the Mossad did 9/11. I said I will present a mountain of evidence showing their undeniable involvement with 9/11. I will summarize this mountain of evidence below and also summarize what I presented about Israeli past actions showing that 9/11 fits nicely into a pattern of events similar to ones committed in the past. All of this begs the question why, why isn't our government seriously investigating the Israelis for so many events involving them with 9/11?

I also said the following in my opening statement:

Quote:

From the evidences I am aware of I firmly believe that the Israelis and crooked elements in our government engineered 9/11 to create a Pearl Harbor type of event that would benefit the American Israeli dupes and their Jewish masters.

This is what I firmly believe but I never said that I will prove that. Mr. thoughtcriminal better get his facts straight or go learn how to read English. My endeavor was to present the evidence and let whoever reads it to come to their own conclusions. As for me my conclusion is that the Mossad and crooked elements in our government are responsible. Anything also showing CIA or any government foreknowledge or involvement enhances my position.

The Mountain of Evidence!

So in regards to 9/11 we find the Israelis involved with many things. Strange wouldn't you say that we don't find Russians, Chinese, Italians or even Africans involved with events related to 9/11 as Israelis? Isn't it just coincidental that the people involved just happen to be Jews? Based on what I presented and what you could not refute as fact we find the following:

1. It was Israelis who were caught watching the WTC burn and crumble and celebrating it with joy. When the Lakers beat Sacramento for the NBA crown they celebrated. Why? Because their efforts were successful! The event, which was the championship game, they won. The Israelis, according to the eye witnesses who saw them on top of the van were ecstatic. They were joyful and why you ask? Because of America's misery, America's lost and thousands of innocent lives perishing. But to the Israelis this was success. They were ecstatic with joy because they too won the championship game!

The reason why the Israelis failed lie detector tests is because the truth that they could not admit was, we planned this. We pulled it off. We successfully created a Pearl Harbor incident to get the stupid goyim fully in bed with us. And just like we did in the time of Christ we are going to do today. We will get our media fully in bed with us to blame someone else for the crime. Yeah we were caught in the Lavon Affair, USS Liberty, etc. But we are ready now. The stakes are too high. "Yippee Aye Yay we are successful. Come on Kurzberg let's dance!!!"

2. It was Israelis whose van was stopped and maps and other paraphernalia were found leading the FBI to believe that they had definite involvement with 9/11.

3. It was the Israeli owner of the Moving van company that immediately shutdown his business, put his house up for sale and fled to Israel when his employees were caught. Aren't these drastic actions and shouldn't we want to know why the owner behaved that way?

4. It was Israelis who were caught spying on the US and lived in the same vicinity as the supposed "hijackers".

5. It was Israelis who were part of a spy ring that Carl Cameron reported about in Fox News saying that government officials stated that they had "tie-ins" to 9/11. By the way this news was suppressed and the story taken off the Fox News website. The people responsible for that were JINSA (the Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs). JINSA President and CEO David Steinmann is also a director of CAMERA (Committee for Accurate Middle East Reporting in America), the group that actually staged the e-mail, fax, letter, and phone call mobilization that squeezed Fox TV, to the point that they removed the transcripts of the four Carl Cameron segments from their own web site. I wonder why these American Jews will be interested in doing such a thing?

6. It was Israelis who the following was reported about by U.S. government authorities when the Israeli spies were found: "An Israeli government spokesman reported a few days ago the news of arresting a number of Israelis by the US intelligence bodies in Florida. This might seem strange but what is more significant is the deliberate ignorance by the Israeli government of the reason for the arrests. The Israelis did not even mention the reason or the case for which their subjects were detained. The point is that a big quantity of the Anthrax germ was held with the Israelis when they were arrested. Moreover, the detainees had 15 charts of the New York Trade Center and eight charts of the Pentagon building which were attacked on September 11th. This is in addition to other six charts of the White House, which was among the would-be targets of the September 11th attacks. According to discreet US reports, the charts found with the Israelis had accurately drawn the Pentagon building and the World Trade Center and defined their geometric projections, as well as, precisely depicted the many floors. Further, some data included in the charts define the itineraries of civil passenger planes and their destinations!!!..."

7. It was Israelis who the Jerusalem Post reported about that 4000 were missing or expected to be dead as a result of doing business and working at the WTC on 9/11.

8. It was the Israeli general counsel Alon Pinkas who reported that out of the 4000 Israelis dead or missing actually only one was killed, a visitor. The statistics of this happening is IMPOSSIBLE. The only reason this could happen is if somehow Israelis were warned ahead of time about the planes crashing into the WTC. The natural question to ask is are there any evidence of prior warnings of the impending WTC attacks given to anyone in the world? If there is let's narrow the list down to see if any warnings happen to be given to Israelis. Well it just so happens that there were prior warnings and the only people in the world to receive them were Israelis!!!!

9. It was Israelis who received Odigo warnings two hours before the planes struck the WTC buildings. This was reported both in the Ha'aertz and Washington Post newspapers. This is proof positive that someone who cares for the lives of Israelis knew that planes were going to be crashed into the WTC ahead of time and wanted to make sure Israelis were not killed. I am sure the identity of that person was not Bin laden. This succinctly explains why only one Israeli got killed on 9/11 although the number was expected to be as much as 4000.

10. It was Israelis who were armed with 9mm pistols, nine grenades, explosives, three detonators and 58 bullets and caught in Mexico in an attempt to blow the Mexican Congress up on October 10, 2001. The Israelis were booked for conspiracy to destroy a building by means of an explosive by the Mexican police. If they were successful in blowing up the Mexican Congress then like 9/11 it would have been blamed on Muslim terrorists. They got caught red-handed here and only God knows how many other incidents that innocent Muslims are being blamed for that was really done by Israelis.

11. General Gul, who at one time was a close ally of the U.S. and a staunch supporter of western values, who could have blamed 9/11 on his Russian or Indian enemies but instead choose to blame 9/11 on Israelis. This former director of the Pakistani Intelligence Service said un-categorically about 9/11 that "Mossad and its American associates are the obvious culprits." Why did he just happen to also blame Israelis? Of course you would say he was biased, etc. I expect that from you but why didn't he blame India or Russia who were far worse enemies to Pakistan than Israel? This was a man who was close to the American Secret Service leaders and their ally. How come he seems to know what Vreeland and other CIA operatives worldwide knew about 9/11?

12. The news about the impending attacks was known by even low ranking CIA agents like Delmart Vreeland. To prove it he wrote what was going to happen in August, 2001 in a sealed envelope while in prison in Canada and had his guards open the envelope on September 14th. Lo and behold he accurately predicted the attacks of 9/11. If he knew about this I am certain that many others in the CIA especially at higher levels knew about it also. As such this was a deliberate planned action set up to create a Pearl Harbor type event to cause the American government to take actions that the planners of this event wanted. With the complicity of the Jewish controlled news media the finger was solidly pointed on OBL, Al-Qaeda and the Taliban. They did not allow any suspicion to be pointed anywhere else. How convenient!!!

As an example of the many reports throughout the world implicating Israeli involvement in 9/11, here is a partial text of one from Canada's Stern-Intel on September 17, 2001:

"A US military intelligence source revealed details of an internal intelligence memo that points to the Israeli Mossad intelligence service having links to the World Trade Centre and Pentagon attacks."

13. The U.S. Army School for Advanced Military Studies (SAMS) wrote this about the Israeli Mossad which was reported about on September 10, 2001 one day before 9/11:

"Wildcard. Ruthless and cunning. Has capability to target U.S. forces and make it look like a Palestinian/Arab act."

BINGO! The very next day an "Arab act" took place against the U.S. and no suspicion or investigation was done based on this credible report from SAMS. As I said the finger was so firmly pointed against Bin Laden that even intelligent people were so suffocated by the Jewish press that no other questions were entertained.

14. An abnormal amount of put stock options were purchased against United and American Airlines one day before 9/11. Gee whiz I wonder why British Airways, Southwest Airlines, Continental or other Airlines did not have abnormally large amounts of put stock options purchases also? Why did it just so happen to be from the two airlines that were involved with the 9/11 incident? It was reported that many Israelis and even an ex-CIA director from Deutsche bank made huge profits on the purchase. One person made as much as $2,500,000.00 on the deal and when last reported did not come to pick up his money. How did all these people know that American and United Airlines stocks will drop so dramatically in value the next day??? I ask the same question as Michael Shore does in the following paragraph, Why? Also why did this story just drop from the media and no follow up was done? Another example of the media in cahoots with the planners of 9/11 to deflect attention from the obvious and keep the Americans firmly fixated to OBL as the only possibility for 9/11.

It would seem easy enough for the FBI and CIA to go to the stockbrokers where these trades were made and find out who made them. This is probably the closest link that can be established to someone who was involved in 9/11 but neither the FBI nor CIA is, apparently, pursuing this.
Why?

15. When Hamas, Islamic Jihad, Hezbollah and other Palestinian groups commits an act of freedom against the brutal Israeli regime, no matter how small the numbers they kill of the enemy they take responsibility for it. That has been their pattern for a long time. Now the largest attack killing the most amount of “the enemy” Americans, instead of OBL boasting about it and even cheering like the Israelis did at the WTC he says the following: “I have already said that I am not involved in the 11 September attacks in the United States. As a Muslim, I try my best to avoid telling a lie. I had no knowledge of these attacks, nor do I consider the killing of innocent women, children and other humans as an appreciable act...”

This is quite significant because as successful as this act was it would have been something for OBL to boast about but instead he condemns it and distances himself from it. Very unlikely behavior for someone guilty and who would normally gloat at such a major accomplishment. The U.S. government claimed that it had proof which they never showed any of us. They claimed that they showed it to the Pakistani President but he also recently came out with a statement claiming that he believes that there is no way that OBL could have pulled off 9/11. What happened to the proof?

With all this evidence of Israeli involvement, corrupt U.S. government officials involvement and media complicity in covering and even dropping information that should be pursued and thoroughly investigated I ask the question why, why in the hell is any of this not being investigated? This is a mountain of evidence. Other evidence not discussed but also valid is how an Israeli company abruptly broke its lease with the WTC, incurring huge costs just weeks before 9/11, the many reports showing evidence that the WTC was blown up from within explaining how the buildings fell, no video or stills of any of the hijackers at Logan Airport, how did the U.S. government identify so quickly the identities of the hijackers and was able to fix the blame on OBL just a few hours after the event, the fact that 8 of the hijackers identified are still alive today, the many false reports about terrorists identities like the one recently of a Pakistani man who never left Pakistan in his life having his picture publicly broadcasted in the media, and I could go on and on.

What we have been told officially about 9/11 has more holes in it than aged cheese. It just does not add up. Yet serious actions are being taken against innocent Muslims and thousands of lives are being lost and even more are being harassed and persecuted. Why isn't our government investigating the huge pile of evidence pointing to the Israelis and why aren't relations between the U.S. and Israel cooled? Why? Why? Why?

1. The leadership of the Jews made false accusations of Jesus and brought him before Pontius Pilate for punishment. They also used their "media" to persuade the masses to choose Barabbas over Jesus. They used deceit to lie against Christ and to whip up public support to the point where the people were yelling "Crucify him, crucify him, crucify him" as human cattle (goyim) blindly obsessed in seeing an innocent man killed for no crime committed. I have posted excerpts below but you can read about it more here in Matthew.

Quote:

1 When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: 2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor... 11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. 12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas or Jesus which is called Christ? 20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus..... 22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified. 23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.... 25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

King James Version, Matthew Chapter 27

Reading this is reminiscent of what the U.S. is doing today against Iraq. The Jewish media has whipped up public support within the U.S. to have our government attack Iraq for no crime committed against the U.S. This is like how the Jews used the Roman governor Pontius Pilate to crucify Jesus for no crime committed. The irony of it all is that 9/11 was the trigger for this unjustified attack on Iraq of which Iraq was totally innocent. If half of the mountain of evidence against the Israelis for 9/11 were true about Iraq then maybe there would have been some justification. But no such thing exists. The Americans are just blindly following the behests of the Satanic Jews. Isn't it any wonder that Jesus said the following about them:

Quote:

---

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. 44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: F19 for he is a liar, and the father of it...

A Pattern of Consistent Behavior!

Here are a few more examples of Jewish treachery against their own people and other people with the aim of having others take the blame for their actions and to accomplish specific goals beneficial to Jewish people:

2. The Jewish Pogroms: Started in the 1890s and continued for three decades to accomplish the following goals:

A. Provide large number of refugees to the U.S. to create a voting block to finalize the Internationalist bankers acquisition of America's monetary system.

B. Create worldwide hatred of the Czarist regime in Russia.

The details exposing this dastardly plan is exposed in full at this Illuminati and CFR site. A brief description is given below:

Quote:

"The poverty matter was not a great problem, but the voter problem was a different story. But as I previously said; Jacob Schiff was a smart cookie. Here is the atrocious and murderous method he employed to solve that voter problem. His solution emphasizes how very little the Jewish internationalist banker's care about their own racial brethren as you shall see. Suddenly; around 1890, there broke out a nationwide series of pogroms in Russia. Many, many, thousands of innocent Jews; men, women, and children were slaughtered by the Cossacks and other peasants. Similar pogroms with similar slaughter of innocent Jews broke-out in Poland, Rumania, and Bulgaria. All those pogroms were fomented by Rothschild agents. As a result; the Jewish terrified refugees, from all of those nations, swarmed into the United States and that continued throughout the next two or three decades, because the pogroms were continuous through all those years. All those refugees were aided by self-styled humanitarian-committees set up by Schiff, the Rothschilds, and all the Rothschild affiliates.

"In the main; the refugees streamed into New York, but the Schiff-Rothschild humanitarian-committees found ways to shuffle many of them into other large cities such as Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, Detroit, Los Angeles, etc... All of them were quickly transformed into "naturalized-citizens" and educated to register as Democrats. Thus all of that so-called minority-group became solid Democratic voter-blocks in their communities, all controlled and maneuvered by their so-called benefactors. And shortly after the turn of the century; they became vital factors in the political-life of our nation. That was one of the methods Schiff employed to plant men like Nelson Aldrich in our Senate and Woodrow Wilson in the White House.

3. WW: I already detailed how the Zionists used the Zimmerman Telegram as a way of getting the U.S. into WW in exchange for the British promising them Palestine. Here also is a few quotes from Benjamin Freedman, who was the Jewish principal owner of the Woodbury Soap company and personally acquainted with Bernard Baruch, Samuel Untermyer, Woodrow Wilson, Franklin Roosevelt, Joseph Kennedy, John F. Kennedy, and many more movers and shakers of our times. The speech was given in 1961 before a patriotic audience which confirms what I presented earlier about the Jews getting the U.S. involved with WW in order to get the British to promise them Palestine via the Balfour Declaration. The link to the full speech is here.

Quote:

What happened? World War I broke out in the summer of 1914. There are few people here my age who remember that. Now that war was waged on one side by Great Britain, France, and Russia; and on the other side by Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey.

Within two years Germany had won that war: not only won it nominally, but won it actually. The German submarines, which were a surprise to the world, had swept all the convoys from the Atlantic Ocean. Great Britain stood there without ammunition for her soldiers, with one week's food supply -- and after that, starvation. At that time, the French army had mutinied. They had lost 600,000 of the flower of French youth in the defense of Verdun on the Somme. The Russian army was defecting, they were picking up their toys and going home, they didn't want to play war anymore, and they didn't like the Czar. And the Italian army had collapsed.

Not a shot had been fired on German soil. Not one enemy soldier had crossed the border into Germany. And yet, Germany was offering England peace terms. They offered England a negotiated peace on what the lawyers call a status quo ante basis. That means: "Let's call the war off, and let everything be as it was before the war started." England, in the summer of 1916 was considering that -- seriously. They had no choice. It was either accepting this negotiated peace that Germany was magnanimously offering them, or going on with the war and being totally defeated.

While that was going on, the Zionists in Germany, who represented the Zionists from Eastern Europe, went to the British War Cabinet and -- I am going to be brief because it's a long story, but I have all the documents to prove any statement that I make -- they said: "Look here. You can yet win this war. You don't have to give up. You don't have to accept the negotiated peace offered to you now by Germany. You can win this war if the United States will come in as your ally." The United States was not in the war at that time. We were fresh; we were young; we were rich; we were powerful. They told England: "We will guarantee to bring the United States into the war as your ally, to fight with you on your side, if you will promise us Palestine after you win the war." In other words, they made this deal: "We will get the United States into this war as your ally. The price you must pay is Palestine after you have won the war and defeated Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey." Now England had as much right to promise Palestine to anybody, as the United States would have to promise Japan to Ireland for any reason whatsoever. It's absolutely absurd that Great Britain, that never had any connection or any interest or any right in what is known as Palestine should offer it as coin of the realm to pay the Zionists for bringing the United States into the war. However, they did make that promise, in October of 1916. And shortly after that -- I don't know how many here remember it -- the United States, which was almost totally pro-German, entered the war as Britain's ally.

4. WWII: I explained previously how Franklin Roosevelt allowed Pearl Harbor to happen in order to get the Americans into WWII against Germany. This move was pushed on the U.S. by the Jews who were adamantly pressing the U.S. into war.

What I did not go into was what the Jews wanted as a result of WWII. The two goals that were achieved for Jews as a result of WWII were as follows:

A. Create world sympathy for Jews via the "Holocaust".

B. Finalized the creation of the state of Israel and mass migration of Jews from Europe.

Quote:

According to Myron Fagan at the link Illuminati and CFR:

"World War II, when and if necessary, was to be fomented by using the controversies between Fascists and political Zionists, and here let it be noted that Hitler was financed by Krupp, the Warburgs, the Rothschilds, and other internationalist bankers and that the slaughter of the supposed 6,000,000 Jews by Hitler didn't bother the Jewish internationalist bankers at all. That slaughter was necessary in order to create worldwide-hatred of the German people and thus bring about war against them. In short; this second world war was to be fought to destroy Nazism and increase the power of political Zionism so that the state of Israel could be established in Palestine."

The Neturei Karta, a highly religious Jewish group admits that during WWII Zionists were working with Hitler to force immigration of German Jews to Palestine. The following is a statement from their website www.netureikarta.org:

"It is openly stated in books written by the founders of Zionism that the means by which they planned to establish a state was by instigating anti-Semitism, and undermining the security of the Jews in all the lands of the world, until they would be forced to flee to their state. And thus they did - They intentionally infuriated the German people and fanned the flames of Nazi hatred, and they helped the Nazis, with trickery and deceit, to take whole Jewish communities off to the concentration camps, and the Zionists themselves admit this. (See the books Perfidy, Min Ha Meitsor, etc.). The Zionists continue to practice this strategy today, they incite anti-Semitism and then they present themselves as the "saviors".

Another reference is from the article: The Secret Alliance Between Hitler and The Zionists, written by M. Raphael Johnson PHD. The link to this article is at Hitler and Zionists.

The war by the international Jewish leadership on Germany not only sparked definite reprisals by the German government but also set the stage for a little-known economic and political alliance between the Hitler government and the leaders of the Zionist movement who hoped that the tension between the Germans and the Jews would lead to massive emigration to Palestine. In short, the result was a tactical alliance between the Nazis and the founders of the modern-day state of Israel - a fact that many today would prefer be forgotten...

In fact, the Zionist faction had every reason to ensure the permanence of National Socialist ideology in Germany. Klaus Polkehn, writing in the Journal of Palestine Studies ("The Secret Contacts: Zionism and Nazi Germany, 1933-1941"; JPS v. 3/4, spring/summer 1976), claims that the moderate attitude of the Zionists was due to their vested interest in seeing the financial victory of National Socialism to force immigration to Palestine. This little-known factor would ultimately come to play a pivotal part in the relationship between Nazi Germany and the Jews.

5. Zionist Committed Terrorist Actions Against Iraqi Jews:

I want to repeat a sentence from the Neturei Karta's quote above to show the raw truth about the Zionists. ...It is openly stated in books written by the founders of Zionism that the means by which they planned to establish a state was by instigating anti-Semitism, and undermining the security of the Jews in all the lands of the world... The following is an open admission by an Iraqi Jew showing how terrorist actions were committed against Iraqi Jews by Zionists to force them to flee to Israel. The link to the full details of this article is at Iraqi Jews

Quote:

---

In 1950, a wave of anti Semitism and terrorism in Iraq made Naeim Giladi, 21, join the Zionist underground.

Giladi was imprisoned, tortured and sentenced to death by Iraqi authorities. He escaped and fled to Israel only to discover that the anti Semitism and bombings had been engineered by his fellow Zionists to dupe Iraqi Jews into going to Israel.

Giladi's family was part of a Jewish community that settled and prospered in Babylon 2600 years ago, 600 years before Christianity, and 1200 years before Islam.

Then in the late 1940's, the Prime Minister Nouri-el-Said fired Jewish government employees, denied permits to Jewish merchants, and finally, in March 1950, deprived Jews of their citizenship. Still they did not leave.

A month later, a series of terrorist bombings started the wave of emigration. By January 1951 when a bomb thrown at a synagogue killed three and wounded 30, the exodus of frightened Jews jumped to 600-700 per day.

When Giladi's father discovered his son had joined the Zionists, he was skeptical. "You'll come home with your tail between your legs," he said.

But Giladi was young and idealistic. Jews were being killed and Zionism represented a chance to build a national home. "I was a true believer," he writes.

In an essay "The Jews of Iraq", which is on line, Giladi describes his bitter realization that Zionists were behind the anti Semitism and bombings.

Unknown to Giladi, two members of the Zionist Underground had been arrested and confessed that they had carried out the terrorist attacks.

A book, "Venom of the Zionist Viper," by an Iraqi investigator names Zionist "emissary" Mordecai Ben-Porat as the organizer. The book was banned in Israel.

Iraqi Prime Minister Said was a British pawn. He met Israeli PM David Ben Gurion in Vienna in 1948 and agreed to transfer the Iraqi Jews to Israel as part of the elite geopolitical program. This and other Zionist crimes against Jews are documented in Giladi's book, "Ben Gurion's Scandals: How the Mossad and the Haganah Eliminated Jews,"(1992) which will be republished by Dandelion Books this spring.

By January 1952, all but 6,000 of 125,000 Iraqi Jews had fled to Israel where as "Arab Jews," they were treated as second-class citizens. Israel wanted them to perform the menial jobs vacated by the Palestinians. Between the Iraqi and Israeli governments, the Iraqi Jews lost much of their wealth...

A Pattern of Consistent Behavior!

6. In 1956, as reported by the Times Of London, during one of Israel's perpetual wars with its neighbors, the Mossad tried to trick the United States into siding with Israel against the Arabs by blowing up a US facility in Cairo and blaming the Arabs for it. The plot was wrecked when the operatives were caught and confessed, creating a huge scandal.

7. According to Victor Ostrovski, a defector from the Mossad, the USA was tricked into bombing Libya when the Mossad planted a radio transmitter in Tripoli which sent out fake orders to terrorists which the USA could intercept.

8. On June 8, Israel used unmarked fighters and torpedo boats to launch an hour and one-half attack on the American Navy ship the USS Liberty, costing 34 American lives and 171 wounded. The Israelis first attacked the Liberty's radio towers in an attempt to stop the Sixth Fleet from learning that the Israelis were the attackers. After unmarked Israeli fighters horrendously bombed and strafed the Liberty, Israel sent in torpedo boats to finish the job. They even machine gunned the deployed life rafts in an effort to ensure that there would be no survivors (witnesses) who could expose them. Just as in the Lavon Affair, Israel hoped to blame this act of war on their enemy, the Egyptians. This time, only the courage and resourcefulness of the Liberty's crew prevented a further compounding of the travesty.

I will stop here but I could go on and on with many more examples. The examples I listed above are MAJOR indictments against the Satanic Jews. From major world wars, that cost the lives of millions of humanity, to treacherous actions against their own people. These are very, very serious actions against all of humanity. I contend that true to their past consistent actions in the past and along with the mountain of evidence pointing to their involvement with 9/11, that Satanic Jews along with corrupt elements in our government are responsible for 9/11. I firmly believe they are responsible and that innocent Muslims were framed for the murderous actions of Jews!

I conclude this debate by quoting the following reactions from Israeli leaders when the news of 9/11 broke:

Quote:

Reactions from the Israeli side to the September attack:

Ehud Sprinzak, terrorism expert at Hebrew University in Jerusalem, said "From the perspective of Jews, it is the most important public relations act ever committed in our favor."

The attack "was good for the Jews," "It is very good", said Netanyahu...before he caught himself and amended his statement.

In an interview with Le Monde, Ami Ayalon, former Head of Israeli Shin Bet, stated: "Since September 11, our leaders have been euphoric."

Lastly TC, I want you and all of the doubters out there to seriously follow the following news report. In this news report we will use certain word substitutions to make our point. I seriously want you to clear your mind and think like a goyim. Put yourself in the mindset of the average American. What would you Mr. average American think after reading such a report? Please follow me with this. OK here we go:

Breaking News! ABC news reporter Ansar has compiled in conjunction with government agencies and respected news sources here in the U.S. and around the world the following report about events surrounding 9/11. This tragic incident that took the lives of about 3000 Americans is something that will never be forgotten in American history. As a result of this our brave President has initiated the war on terrorism and has attacked Iraq to eradicate the possibility of WMD falling into the hands of terrorists.

The following report shows factual events involving the Republic of Iran with 9/11. The details are as follows:

So in regards to 9/11 we find the Iranians involved with many things. Strange wouldn't you say that we don't find Russians, Chinese, Italians or even Africans involved with events related to 9/11 as Iranians? Isn't it just coincidental that the people involved just happen to be Iranians? Based on what was presented before I want to list the following:

1. It was Iranians who were caught watching the WTC burn and crumble and celebrating it with joy. When the Lakers beat Sacramento for the NBA crown they celebrated. Why? Because their efforts were successful! The event, which was the championship game, they won. The Iranians, according to the eye witnesses who saw them on top of the van were ecstatic. They were joyful and why you ask? Because of America's misery, America's lost and thousands of innocent lives perishing. But to the Iranians this was success. They were ecstatic with joy because they too won the championship game!

To show that this joy was not local only to the 5 Iranians, look at what was said by and about their leaders:

Reactions from the Iranian side to the September attack:

Farooza Pourkey, terrorism expert at Khomeini University in Tehran, said "From the perspective of Iranians, it is the most important public relations act ever committed in our favor."

The attack "was good for the Iranians," "It is very good", said Mohammed Qahtani...before he caught himself and amended his statement.

In an interview with Le Monde, Ali Namazi, former Head of the Iranian Militia for the Republic of Iran, stated: "Since September 11, our leaders have been euphoric."

The reason why the Iranians failed lie detector tests is because the truth that they could not admit was we planned this. We pulled it off. We successfully created a Pearl Harbor incident to get the stupid goyim fully in bed with us. And just like we did in the time of Christ we are going to do today. We will get our media fully in bed with us to blame someone else for the crime. Yeah we were caught in the Lavon Affair, USS Liberty, etc. But we are ready now. The stakes are too high. "Yippee Aye Yay we are successful. Come on Ali let's dance!!!"

2. It was Iranians whose van was stopped and maps and other paraphernalia were found leading the FBI to believe that they had definite involvement with 9/11.

3. It was the Iranian owner of the Moving van company that immediately shutdown his business, put his house up for sale and fled to Iran when his employees were caught. Aren't these drastic actions and shouldn't we want to know why the owner behaved that way?

4. It was Iranians who were caught spying on the US and lived in the same vicinity as the supposed "hijackers".

5. It was Iranians who were part of a spy ring that Carl Cameron reported about in Foxx News saying that government officials stated that they had "tie-ins" to 9/11. By the way this news was suppressed and the story taken off the Foxx News website. The people responsible for that were IINSA (the Iranian Institute for National Security Affairs). IINSA President and CEO Faruddin Mosadeq is also a director of CAMERA (Committee for Accurate Middle East Reporting in America), the group that actually staged the e-mail, fax, letter, and phone call mobilization that squeezed Fox TV, to the point that they removed the transcripts of the four Carl Cameron segments from their own web site. I wonder why these American Iranians will be interested in doing such a thing.

6. It was Iranians who the following was reported about by U.S. government authorities when the Iranian spies were found: "An Iranian government spokesman reported a few days ago the news of arresting a number of Iranians by the US intelligence bodies in Florida. This might seem strange but what is more significant is the deliberate ignorance by the Iranian government of the reason for the arrests. The Iranians did not even mention the reason or the case for which their subjects were detained. The point is that a big quantity of the Anthrax germ was held with the Iranians when they were arrested. Moreover, the detainees had 15 charts of the New York Trade Center and eight charts of the Pentagon building which were attacked on September 11th. This is in addition to other six charts of the White House, which was among the would-be targets of the September 11th attacks. According to discreet US reports, the charts found with the Iranians had accurately drawn the Pentagon building and the World Trade Center and defined their geometric projections, as well as, precisely depicted the many floors. Further, some data included in the charts define the itineraries of civil passenger planes and their destinations!!!!..."

7. It was Iranians who the Tehran Post reported about that 4000 were missing or expected to be dead as a result of doing business and working at the WTC on 9/11.

8. It was the Iranian general counsel Mohammad Nasruddin Mehdi who reported that out of the 4000 Iranians dead or missing actually only one was killed, a visitor. The statistics of this happening is IMPOSSIBLE. The only reason this could happen is if somehow Iranians were warned ahead of time about the planes crashing into the WTC. The natural question to ask is, are there any evidence of prior warnings of the impending WTC attacks given to anyone in the world? If there is let's narrow the list down to see if any warnings happen to be given to Iranians. Well it just so happens that there were prior warnings and the only people in the world to receive them were Iranians!!!!

9. It was Iranians who received Odigo warnings two hours before the planes struck the WTC buildings. This was reported both in the Tehran Times and Washington Post newspapers. This is proof positive that someone who cares for the lives of Iranians knew that planes were going to be crashed into the WTC ahead of time and wanted to make sure Iranians were not killed. I am sure the identity of that person was not Bin laden. This succinctly explains why only one Iranian got killed on 9/11 although the number was expected to be as much as 4000.

10. It was Iranians who were armed with 9mm pistols, nine grenades, explosives, three detonators and 58 bullets and caught in Mexico in an attempt to blow the Mexican Congress up on October 10, 2001. The Iranians were booked for conspiracy to destroy a building by means of an explosive by the Mexican police. If they were successful in blowing up the Mexican Congress then like 9/11 it would have been blamed on Christian terrorists. They got caught red-handed here and only God knows how many other incidents that innocent Christians are being blamed for that were really done by Iranians.

11. General Gul, who at one time was a close ally of the U.S. and a staunch supporter of western values, who could have blamed 9/11 on his Russian or Indian enemies but instead choose to blame 9/11 on Iranians. This former director of the Pakistani Intelligence Service said un-categorically about 9/11 that "The Iranian Savak and its American associates are the obvious culprits." Why did he just happen to also blame Iranians? Of course you would say he was biased, etc. I expect that from you but why didn't he blame India or Russia who were far worse enemies to Pakistan than Iran? This was a man who was close to the American Secret Service leaders and their ally. How come he seems to know what Vreeland and other CIA operatives worldwide knew about 9/11?

12. The news about the impending attacks was known by even low ranking CIA agents like Delmart Vreeland. To prove it he wrote what was going to happen in August, 2001 in a sealed envelope while in prison in Canada and had his guards open the envelope on September 14th. Lo and behold he accurately predicted the attacks of 9/11. If he knew about this I am certain that many others in the CIA especially at higher levels knew about it also. As such this was a deliberate planned action set up to create a Pearl Harbor type event to cause the American government to take actions that the planners of this event wanted. With the complicity of the Iranian controlled news media the finger was solidly pointed on OBL, Al-Qaeda and the Taliban. They did not allow any suspicion to be pointed anywhere else. How convenient!!!

As an example of the many reports throughout the world implicating Iranian involvement in 9/11, here is a partial text of one from Canada's Stern-Intel on September 17, 2001:

"A US military intelligence source revealed details of an internal intelligence memo that points to the Iranian Savak intelligence service having links to the World Trade Centre and Pentagon attacks."

13. The U.S. Army School for Advanced Military Studies (SAMS) wrote this about the Iranian Savak which was reported about on September 10, 2001 one day before 9/11:

"Wildcard. Ruthless and cunning. Has capability to target U.S. forces and make it look like a Palestinian/Arab act."

BINGO! The very next day an "Arab act" took place against the U.S. and no suspicion or investigation was done based on this credible report from SAMS. As I said the finger was so firmly pointed against Bin Laden that even intelligent people were so suffocated by the Iranian press that no other questions were entertained.

14. An abnormal amount of put stock options were purchased against United and American Airlines one day before 9/11. Gee whiz I wonder why British Airways, Southwest Airlines, Continental or other Airlines did not have abnormally large amounts of put stock options purchases also? Why did it just so happen to be from the two airlines that were involved with the 9/11 incident? It was reported that many Iranians and even an ex-CIA director from Deutsche bank made huge profits on the purchase. One person made as much as $2,500,000.00 on the deal and when last reported did not come to pick up his money. How did all these people know that American and United Airlines stocks will drop so dramatically in value the next day??? I ask the same question as Michael Shore does in the following paragraph, Why? Also why did this story just drop from the media and no follow up was done? Another example of the media in cahoots with the planners of 9/11 to deflect attention from the obvious and keep the Americans firmly fixated on OBL as the only possibility for 9/11.

It would seem easy enough for the FBI and CIA to go to the stockbrokers where these trades were made and find out who made them. This is probably the closest link that can be established to someone who was involved in 9/11 but neither the FBI nor CIA is, apparently, pursuing this.
Why?

15. When Hamas, Islamic Jihad, Hezbollah and other Palestinian groups commits an act of freedom against the brutal Israeli regime, no matter how small the numbers they kill of the enemy they take responsibility for it. That has been their pattern for a long time. Now the largest attack killing the most amount of "the enemy" Americans, instead of OBL boasting about it and even cheering like the Iranians did at the WTC he says the following: "I have already said that I am not involved in the 11 September attacks in the United States. As a Muslim, I try my best to avoid telling a lie. I had no knowledge of these attacks, nor do I consider the killing of innocent women, children and other humans as an appreciable act..."

This is quite significant because as successful as this act was it would have been something for OBL to boast about but instead he condemns it and distances himself from it. Very unlikely behavior for someone guilty and who would normally gloat at such a major accomplishment. The U.S. government claimed that it had proof which they never showed any of us. They claimed that they showed it to the Pakistani President but he also recently came out with a statement claiming that he believes that there is no way that OBL could have pulled off 9/11. What happened to the proof?

With all this evidence of Iranian involvement, corrupt U.S. government officials involvement and media complicity in covering and even dropping information that should be pursued and thoroughly investigated I ask the question why, why in the hell is any of this not being investigated? This is a mountain of evidence. Other evidence not discussed but also valid is how an Iranian company abruptly broke its lease with the WTC, incurring huge costs just weeks before 9/11, the many reports showing evidence that the WTC was blown up from within explaining how the buildings fell, no video or stills of any of the hijackers at Logan Airport, how did the U.S. government identify so quickly the identities of the hijackers and was able to fix the blame on OBL just a few hours after the event, the fact that 8 of the hijackers identified are still alive today, the many false reports about terrorists identities like the one recently of a Pakistani man who never left Pakistan in his life having his picture publicly broadcasted in the media, and I could go on and on.

What we have been told officially about 9/11 has more holes in it than aged cheese. It just does not add up. Yet serious actions are being taken against innocent Christians and thousands of lives are being lost and even more are being harassed and persecuted. Why isn't our government investigating the huge pile of evidence pointing to the Iranians and why aren't relations between the U.S. and Iran cooled? Why? Why? Why?

Along with this the Iranians have a consistent history of fraudulent actions costing the lives of millions of human beings. Here is a brief look at some past Iranian actions showing their treachery, deception and fraud in having innocents take the blame for their evil actions and false accusations:

Quote:

1. According to our Bible it was Iranians who were responsible for falsely accusing our Lord and Savior, deceiving the masses about his true mission and causing him to be crucified by the Romans. It is also true that in our Bible Jesus called Iranians murderers, children of the devil, vipers and other vile things.
2. According to many respected WW1 historians it was Iranians who tricked Britain into agreeing to give them Kurdistan in exchange for getting the U.S. into WW1. Benjamin Freedman, a friend of some of the major leaders in our time and who is also an Iranian admitted this during a major speech given to patriots in 1961.
3. It was Iranians who caused the pogroms of their own people in Russia so that the world will hate the regime of the Czar and cause millions of Iranians to flee to the U.S. for political gain.
4. As admitted to by many historians and even by the ultra Iranian religious group, the Neturei Karta, WW2 was engineered by Iranians and that the leadership of the Iranians made an alliance with Hitler causing thousands of German Iranians to be killed so that others will flee in mass to Kurdistan. They also forced the U.S. president Roosevelt to get into WW2 by embargoing

Japanese oil causing them to attack the U.S. at Pearl Harbor. Roosevelt went along with this plan all the while knowing ahead of time about the Japanese attack and the murder of thousands of Americans.

5. The Iraqi Namazi Giladi wrote a book detailing how Iranians performed terrorist actions and caused the deaths of many Iranian Iraqis so that Iraqis can be blamed for it. The purpose of these terrorist actions was to cause Iranians to migrate to Kurdistan from Iraq. All but 6,000 of the 125,000 Iranians in Iraq fled to Kurdistan.

6. In 1956, as reported by the Times Of London, during one of Iran's perpetual wars with its neighbors, the Iranian Savak tried to trick the United States into siding with Iran against Egypt by blowing up a US facility in Cairo and blaming the Egyptians for it. The plot was wrecked when the operatives were caught and confessed, creating a huge scandal.

7. According to Zaki Ostrovski, a defector from the Iranian Savak, the USA was tricked into bombing Libya when the Iranian Savak planted a radio transmitter in Tripoli which sent out fake orders to terrorists which the USA could intercept.

8. On June 8, Iran used unmarked fighters and torpedo boats to launch an hour and one-half attack on the American Navy ship the USS Liberty, costing 34 American lives and 171 wounded. The Iranians first attacked the Liberty's radio towers in an attempt to stop the Sixth Fleet from learning that the Iranians were the attackers. After unmarked Iranian fighters horrendously bombed and strafed the Liberty, Iran sent in torpedo boats to finish the job. They even machine gunned the deployed life rafts in an effort to ensure that there would be no survivors (witnesses) who could expose them. Just as in the Lavon Affair, Iran hoped to blame this act of war on their enemy, the Egyptians. This time, only the courage and resourcefulness of the Liberty's crew prevented a further compounding of the travesty.

I could go on and on with more travesties committed by Iranians. But I hope you are getting my point. In my opening statement I said This evidence, if was pointed to at any other country in the world would make Americans demand en-mass a full investigation of the facts surrounding 9/11 and immediate cooling of relations between that country and the U.S....Be honest, what would you as an American really think if presented with the information above about the Republic of Iran??? Please be perfectly honest with yourself and answer that question. I think an investigation would just be a start. Blowing Iran off the face of the earth will be the finish. After all the U.S. is attacking Iraq for far less reasons than what I presented above.

The information above is all true about Israel. None of it has been refuted by thoughtcriminal. For God's sake America why the hell are we just allowing this? Why are we not investigating, sanctioning, attacking, freezing funds, etc from Israel? What more do we need?

With all that I have presented above I rest my case with thoughtcriminal and all who have been following this "debate"!

John Deere has been quite lenient with you and so have I. You have posted numerous articles and made numerous comments on LF since Mar 18 to now but yet you have avoided this cage like a plague. Is what I presented so difficult for you to respond to? Obviously it is since it's been about a month for anything to come from you.

Unless there is some kind of unknown connection and favoritism to you I strongly suggest that John Deere open this cage match up for comments.

I guess graybeard was right about having to wait until the Iraq war is over to get a response from you. The war is over and still no response. What's next? Wait until we go to our graves?

You suggested that former Pakistani ISI head, General Hamid Gul, was a good source for your supposition that the Mossad was behind 9/11.

To be so he'd have to be an objective source.

An objective source doesn't threaten to nuke India and Israel in suicide attacks.

General Hamid Gul is therefore stricken from the record....

TC... What is it, you can't read or are you just plain STUPID??? Please forgive me for being so coarse. If you look a few posts up it is very clear what I wanted from you regarding General Gul. Let me repeat what I wanted from you for General Gul and I will embolden it to make sure you don't miss the point:

Quote:

Stop putting words in my mouth. I am not saying or denying that the contents of General Gul's statements are true. The point that I want you to admit is whether or not he made those statements. It was a UPI story or do you not trust UPI also? What is it about UseNet that repulses you? Hey, I am not saying that it proves anything just whether or not you believe General Gul made those statements.

TC...I already made my case and it is documented above in a way that is very clear. Nitpicking over points that show your total mis-understanding of what I said is irrelevant. You have the whole volume of my case to respond to.

Yes, I am waiting but I hope it won't be when my grandchildren become adults that you finally concede that I am right. I request again, John Deere please open this for comments, TC does not have anything. At least give him a deadline to respond. How long are you going to give him to respond to a debate that was originally suppose to last for 3 days? Will we be here next year still waiting for a response? He would not have commented if I had not asked you to open this debate for comment. I am new on the LF forum compared to TC. I am sure if I had behaved as he did this debate would have been opened long time ago. Is this a double standard?

With General Gul's words meaningless due to his incredible partisanship, and hatred of both the US and Israel, and with his statement coming in context of pressure being brought down upon the ISI leading to his removal, we can safely conclude that General Gul is a bitter hate-filled individual intent on spreading falsehoods.

My friend General Gul is not gone anywhere but in your own mind. My advice to you TC is to go back and re-read all the advice you got especially from your friends. You have been saying this for the past 3 months. Gul is not down! He is very much alive in the context for which I presented him. He was one who blamed 9/11 squarely on the Israelis and crooked elements in the American government. Whether or not he was accurate was never the question. The fact that he did say those things cannot be denied. I know this may be too subtle for your young mind to grasp but go ask an adult if you need some help.

You used General Gul as a proof that the Israelis committed the acts on 9/11.

I have countered by showing that Gul is a very partisan individual in the matter, who gains much from diverting the responsibility of fellow Muslims and fostering it onto Jews.

For an individual to accuse and to be taken seriously one must be impartial and non-partisan...Gul isn't, therefore his accusations mean little.

According to your logic, if Sharon accuses Muslims of raping Jewish women, we should listen to him.

For those watching at home:

I will give $500.00 to anyone who can....

Storch is a writer for The Barnes Review.

Here is his claim:

Quote:

-----
" Between August 26 and September 11, 2001, a group of speculators, identified by the American Securities and Exchange Commission as Israeli citizens, sold "short" a list of 38 stocks that could reasonably be expected to fall in value as a result of the pending attacks.
-----

In an email, Storch said that Israelis were specifically mentioned by the SEC. He also said that his sources for this include the Guardian UK, the New York Times, and the San Francisco Chronicle.

Therefore, anyone who can find these articles will get a $500.00 certified cheque from me made out to whomever you want.

📧 Re: Did the Mossad commit the terrorist acts against the US on 9/11? {Ansar Wrote}

Ah, but that is what you would like to believe huh TC? What a wonderful world this would be if only what we like to believe were true? Bottom line is that neither you nor anyone else on this forum has information to disprove Storch's claim. Then at the same time you want us to believe that your enquiries are truthful. Storch's claims are published and very public. As such that is more valuable than any personal correspondence and puts him at great risk and loss of credibility for the Barnes Review if his statement were false. As long as that very public article has been around, you would think that someone from the Jew stream media would expose it and ruin the Barnes Review for daring to print lies about the chosen ones. They haven't and instead of bothering Storch you should be bothering the Jew stream media with his article so that he could be exposed. But I don't see any of that happening.

All you are left with is the age old tactic of attacking the source and not the content of the information. What disinfo rule number is that one TC? You have nothing to refute the information presented. You use self reference and expect us to hold that as more important than a public release of an article by a very public news organization. Why don't you get a public statement from the SEC about whether or not they released the information? That will make more sense.

Bottom line is that you hate such raw truths to be exposed about the "chosen ones". As a result you will gnaw, scream, kick and even urinate like a spoiled brat to make what is said not true. But don't feel disappointed. There is much more truths being exposed about your precious "chosen ones" that will have the world going after their jugular!

📖 Re: Did the Mossad commit the terrorist acts against the US on 9/11? {Ansar Wrote}

I think I ought to post the full statement from another thread that you are referring to so that it could be here for the record.

Who Financially Profited from 9/11?

Some have used the following references to “prove” that OBL and Al-Qaeda were guilty of making profits from 9/11 insider trading:

See also: Business empire at odds with desert warrior image

[Sept. 24, 2001] "US and European investment market regulators are investigating whether bin Laden or any of his associates attempted to cash in on the share market reaction to September 11...

[Sept. 16, 2001] "An Italian newspaper, Corriere della Serra, reported yesterday that the FBI is probing the possibility that bin Laden associates tried to profit from the disaster by "short-selling" stocks in reinsurance companies before the attack, possibly including shares of AXA in France, Munich Re in Germany, and Swiss Re in Switzerland."

What were the results of are investigating and FBI is probing the possibility of Al-Qaeda and OBL insider trading? Since when does are investigating and FBI is probing the possibility mean guilty of committing the act? Compare that to this statement:

“Between August 26 and September 11, 2001, a group of speculators, identified by the American Securities and Exchange Commission as Israeli citizens, sold “short” a list of 38 stocks that could reasonably be expected to fall in value as a result of the pending attacks. These speculators operated out of the Toronto, Canada and Frankfurt, Germany, stock exchanges and their profits were specifically stated to be “in the millions of dollars.”

Most of these transactions were handled primarily by Deutsche Bank-A.B.Brown, a firm which until 1998 was chaired by A. B."Buzzy" Krongard, who later became executive director of the CIA. Click 9/11 Insider stock trades for more.

There is no ambiguity here! The American Securities and Commission identified the group of speculators who made profits from the 9/11 attacks to be Israelis! It also mentions that CIA and Deutsche Bank were involved. “On September 10, 4,516 put options were purchased on American Airlines as compared to 748 call options. No other airlines showed any similar trading patterns to those experienced by UAL and American. The put option purchases on both airlines were 600% above normal. Highly abnormal levels of put options are also purchased in Merrill Lynch, Morgan Stanley, AXA Re (insurance) which owns 25% of American Airlines, and Munich Re. All of these companies are directly impacted by the September 11 attacks.”

To answer the question: What were the results of are investigating and FBI is probing the possibility of Al-Qaeda and OBL insider trading? The article stated the following:

Quote:

Apparently none of the suspicious transactions could be traced to bin Laden because this news item quietly dropped from sight, leaving many people wondering if it tracked back to American firms or intelligence agencies.

This answer is expected. Are Muslims known for their manipulation of Western share markets? Did Muslims lead the assault on the British Pound, the Italian Lira, or the Thai Baht (& other Asian currencies) some years ago? No - they are not known for such actions, but Israelis are and for insider stock trading on 9/11 they were found to be guilty.

Mike Ward, PopMatters Columnist and Film Critic also reported: "Still, even if Al Qaeda placed the 4,744 suspicious transactions, wouldn't the story still be useful, if only to further illuminate the terrorist network's money machine? Apparently not, because the story didn't just fade away over time; it suddenly vanished..." Where did we see stories vanishing before? (Hint Israeli spy ring, Israelis caught trying to bomb the Mexican Congress, Dr. Zach and anthrax, Lavon Affair, USS Liberty attack, etc, etc, etc) What is it that all these stories have in common?

How did so many Israelis on September 10, 2001 knew that American and United Airlines stocks were going to take a dramatic drop in value the next day on 9/11? According to the American Securities and Commission, a group of Israeli speculators were identified making money on the put stocks. How did they know that the stocks were going to drop in value to risk investing in them?

Couple this with the information that 6 months prior to 9/11, the lease for the WTC was bought by an Israeli firm, the Silverstein Group, owned by Larry Silverstein. Mr. Silverstein had the foresight to "fortuitously" take out insurance which covered for acts of terrorism. As a result today Mr. Silverstein is one of the richest men in the world earning 7.1 billion dollars for his "fortuitous" act from insurance payouts.

Along with no inquiry into the identities of the Israelis investing in put stocks the story was suddenly dropped. Very peculiar huh? I am sure if it was found out that Al-Qaeda members made money on put stocks it would be front page news. After all they and the Taliban were the ones in on this plot and would be most likely to risk investing in put stocks. Very suspicious isn't it and I ask the same question as Michael Shore in Jerusalem asked:

It would seem easy enough for the FBI and CIA to go to the stockbrokers where these trades were made and find out who made them. This is probably the closest link that can be established to someone who was involved in 9/11 but neither the FBI nor CIA is, apparently, pursuing this.

Why?

Here's an article:

Still Silence From 9-11 Stock Speculation Probe - June 3, 2002

Quote:

All the more reason to wonder what's going on and taking so long, say the experts.

And it is not just the SEC and FBI that is still mired in the 9-11 profiteering probe. Japan, Germany, the U.K., France, Luxembourg, Hong Kong, Switzerland and Spain have their own investigations running.

Like their U.S. counterparts, nothing has been forthcoming.

So far, the only break in the silence has been the apparent impromptu courtroom outburst of assistant U.S. attorney Kenneth Breen, who recently accused Amr Ibrahim Elgindy, an Egyptian-born stockbroker on trial in San Diego, with knowing in advance about 9-11 and capitalizing on the insider information by attempting to unload $300,000 worth of shares on Sept. 10, 2001.

Here's a more recent one:

What You Think You Know About Sept. 11 ...but don't - September 10, 2003

Quote:

5. The misconception: Terrorists or their supporters profited by speculating on airline stocks before 9/11.

What's wrong with the story: Terrorists may have profited, but the evidence is sketchy. As was widely reported after 9/11, the options market for United and American Airlines was unusually busy in the days before 9/11, with an extremely heavy volume of "put options"—bets that the airline shares would fall. By the end of September 2001, both the Chicago Board Options Exchange and the Securities and Exchange Commission had launched investigations into the unusual trading. Since then, they've been silent. Two years later, neither the exchange nor the SEC will comment on its investigation. Neither has announced any conclusion. The SEC has not filed any complaint alleging illegal activity, nor has the Justice Department announced any investigation or prosecution.

This does not mean terrorist wagering didn't occur: It might well have. The absence of any complaint suggests the SEC found nothing illegal, but that's not definite. The SEC and the Chicago board seal the records of their investigations and won't offer any explanation—even if there is an innocent one—for the strange trading. So, unless the SEC decides to file a complaint—unlikely at this late stage—we may never know what they learned about terror trading.

📧 Re: Did the Mossad commit the terrorist acts against the US on 9/11? {Ansar Wrote}

Oh, I forgot I have to also remind you of what a refutation mean. Here is a dictionary definition:

Quote:

---

refutation

\Ref u*ta"tion\ (r?f ?*t?"sh?n), n. [L. refutatio: cf. F. r[e]futation.] The act or process of refuting or disproving, or the state of being refuted; proof of falsehood or error; the overthrowing of an argument, opinion, testimony, doctrine, or theory, by argument or countervailing proof.

---

So to make it easy for you TC, if I hold an object in my hand and say that it is white. And then you come along with facts to prove that it really is black, that is a refutation. I would be false and you would be right.

Now Storch claimed that the SEC stated that it was Israelis who profited from put stocks on 9/11! Guess what a refutation of that is? No, it is not a refutation if Storch does not answer your emails. No, it is not a refutation if Storch does not show you exactly where he got that information from. Are you beginning to get the picture TC? But it is a refutation if you show me a statement where the SEC says that Israelis did not profit from put stocks on 9/11! Kapsische?

Oh, the article says:

The SEC and the Chicago board seal the records of their investigations and won't offer any explanation—even if there is an innocent one—for the strange trading.

That is not the same as never released. Be that as it may, what is the source of this article? Who wrote it? Are you sure they are telling the truth about the SEC? But as I mentioned since Storch claims on Israelis profiting from 9/11 according to the SEC, is very public and reported for some time now boldly in the Barnes Review, why isn't any of our main stream media refuting that story and attacking thbrnnews about it? After all isn't it quite anti-semitic of them to say such a thing about those sweet Israelis?

TC you have to do better than that. I wrote volumes and this thing about the SEC came up recently. You mean you can't find anything I wrote to refute or anything you have already written in this cage match to refute anything I said? I bet if you ask me that question I will show you many things I wrote to refute your arguments. And they all fit the definition of refutation too!

Not necessarily, because the information could have been leaked.

From a Jewish viewpoint: Here is what leading Israeli Journalist Israel Shamir thinks about who is responsible for 9/11. The comments he is making is in response to the recent article regarding the Israeli Mossad who were caught celebrating while the WTC was in flames and thousands of Americans were dying. You can read that article here.

Quote:

Jeff is right. Lenni's presumption ("Muslim fundamentalists") is not based on anything but prejudice. Neither before 9/11 nor afterwards, the 'Muslim terrorists' did not show such an ability as on 9/11. Their biggest achievement was to bomb a night club - something on a different scale. If you believe in al-Qaeeda doing 9/11, there is a nice bridge on Yarkon I can sell you... This article in Scottish newspaper can be seen as a 'damage control' - saying that Israelis 'only had knowledge' but did not participated.

I think that Bush' approach to Iraq can be imitated, not only condemned. Let Israel prove its innocence by opening the files of Mossad for a third-party inspection, or else. And open Dimona, too, at the same time. And I would like Lenni to tell us explicitly why such a demand is not good for us. Islamic fundamentalism is an extremely small peanut in comparison with the Jewish (ok, Zionist, if you insist) operation.

"You do a disservice to the cause when you accuse Israel of crimes it didn't do." - claims Lenni. I wonder, why? How can one be so sure that they did not do it? Did Bush do disservice to the Zionist cause when he blamed 9/11 on Iraq?

The following is an interesting observation by our friend Morris from Los Angeles:

Mossad and 9/11

This piece (from a Scottish newspaper) summarizes some of the information that points toward Israeli prior knowledge of the 9/11 atrocities. Most of this information became public in 2001 but has since sunk into the memory hole. It's simply taboo. Since simply pointing out the neoconservatives' leading role in the war on Iraq brings on the lethal charge of "anti-Semitism," even though all of the evidence comes from published sources, it is clear that it would be absolutely verboten to move into more secretive areas. Obviously, the circumstantial evidence of an Israeli connection to 9/11 is strong; in fact, I would say it is obvious. The fact that Israelis, with apparent Mossad connections, managed to take photographs from across the Hudson River of the jet liners hitting the Twin Towers and that Israeli spies (some posing as "art students") lived in close proximity to the 9/11 Islamic terrorists obviously points to some connection. See my essay on the subject from April 2002, "The Israeli spy ring and September 11," [www.thornwalker.com/ditch/towers\_5.htm ]

As the following article points out: "But there is more than a little circumstantial evidence to show that Mossad - whose motto is 'By way of deception, thou shalt do war' - was spying on Arab extremists in the USA and may have known that September 11 was in the offing, yet decided to withhold vital information from their American counterparts which could have prevented the terror attacks."

Now this article states that Israeli intelligence simply knew about the attacks, not that Israel in any way facilitated such attacks. The intrepid Justin Raimondo made a more reasonable assessment of the information when he wrote: "At the very least, the mechanics of what is obviously a covert operation directed by Israel imply a certain degree of foreknowledge. At worst, the details of this complex and by-no-means completely uncovered spy ring may wind up pointing to active (albeit one-sided) Israeli collusion with the mass murderers of 9/11. While the first conclusion is a virtual certainty, the second is, admittedly, speculation. What's scary is that such theorizing is not without a certain basis in fact." <http://www.antiwar.com/justin/j032202.html>

There is an old adage that when a crime is committed, the first question to be asked is 'Cui bono?' Obviously, Israel has been the big beneficiary from 9/11.

The Neocons began the effort to implement the war on Iraq immediately after 9/11 took place. Was it simply a case of serendipity? Would Israel allow such an event to take place, if it were aware of it? Would Israel dare to try to facilitate such an event?

For years stories have circulated that Israeli agents--especially its foreign intelligence agency the Mossad--have infiltrated Arab terrorist networks and have sometimes actually been involved in deceptive terrorist activities intended to appear as the work of Arabs. For example, it has been alleged that the Mossad had thoroughly infiltrated the nefarious terrorist group Abu Nidal and even facilitated some of its terrorist activities for Israel's benefit. [Patrick Seale, Abu Nidal: A Gun for Hire (New York: Random House, 1992)]

In the notorious Lavon Affair, Israel's deceptive terrorism was actually acknowledged by the Israeli government. In July 1954 Egypt was plagued by a series of bomb outrages directed mainly against American and British property in Cairo and Alexandria. It was generally assumed that this was the work of Arab nationalists, which had the effect of heightening tensions at a time when Egypt was negotiating with Britain over the evacuation of its military bases in the Suez Canal Zone. Egyptian police were able to capture and identify one of the bombers, which in turn led to the round up of an Israeli spy ring, consisting of Israeli and Egyptian Jews. Israel responded to the spy scandal by declaring it an "anti-Semitic" lie. As the public trial progressed, it was evident that Israel had indeed been behind the bombing. Eventually, the spying was admitted in Israel and Israeli's Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon was brought down by the scandal, although he may have largely been a scapegoat.

The belief that Israel might engage in such deceptive terrorism against the United States was expressed in a 2001 study by the Army's School of Advanced Military Studies (SAMS). A poignant reference to this study appeared in a front page article in the Washington Times on September 10, 2001, one day before the horrific attack. The article read: "Of the Mossad, the Israeli intelligence service, the SAMS officers say: 'Wildcard. Ruthless and cunning. Has capability to target US forces and make it look like a Palestinian/Arab act.'"

<http://www.cooperativeresearch.org/timeline/2001/washingtontimes091001.html>

Since significant circumstantial evidence points to a connection with Israel, one might think it would be investigated thoroughly. But, of course, such an investigation is precluded by the "anti-Semitic" taboo. Note that this whole story is much too dangerous for the American media and any investigative reporter to handle. Contrast this with all the publicity given to wild charges about Saddam's possession of WMD or his connection to al-Qaeda. As a matter of fact, evidence of Israeli malevolence is even too taboo to be investigated thoroughly by organs of the US government—as was the case of the Israeli attack on the USS Liberty in 1967, in which 35 American sailors were killed. Therefore, it would seem that the fear of being caught would not exist to deter Israel from engaging in actions harmful to the US. The only thing that would possibly restrain Israel would be some love for the United States. But, of course, such "love," did not prevent Israel from attacking the Liberty nor of selling American intelligence secrets obtained from Pollard to the Soviet Union, which endangered (and, in fact, cost) American lives. In short, Israel is willing to take measures destructive of American lives to advance its own interests.

The only major media outlet that gave attention to the Israeli "art student" spying was, ironically, the pro-war Fox News, in articles presented by reporter Carl Cameron. Some telling quotes from Cameron.

"Evidence linking these Israelis to 9/11 is classified. I cannot tell you about evidence that has been gathered. It's classified information." -- US official quoted in Carl Cameron's Fox News report on the Israeli spy ring.

<http://www.whatreallyhappened.com/spying.html>

"Investigators within the DEA, INS and FBI have all told Fox News that to pursue or even suggest Israeli spying ... is considered career suicide." Carl Cameron, as quoted in The Spies Who Came In From The Art Sale, <http://atlanta.creativeloafing.com/2002-03-13/fishwrapper.html>

Fox was under intense pressure from pro-Israeli lobbying groups, such as the Anti-Defamation League and the Orwellian-named Committee for Accuracy in Middle East Reporting, to stop reporting on the issue of Israeli spies. Fox obliged and removed the Cameron reports from its web site.

A final intriguing tidbit regarding Israel and 9/11 that might not mean anything, but then . . .

A private security company called ICTS, owned by an Israeli, Ezra Harel, is said to have provided security services to all the airports where the 9/11 planes were hijacked. Many of its personnel are said to be ex-Shin Bet officers. (Israel's internal security service.)

Continuing to use this as a repository of information please find below a most telling article showing an independent inquiry done by a group of military and civilian U.S. pilots and presented to Bush showing that (1) the planes used in 9/11 were not hijacked and (2) Bin Laden had nothing to do with 9/11!

Quote:

A group of military and civilian US pilots, under the chairmanship of Colonel Donn de Grand, after deliberating non-stop for 72 hours, has concluded that the flight crews of the four passenger airliners, involved in the September 11th tragedy, had no control over their aircraft.

In a detailed press communiqué the inquiry stated: “The so-called terrorist attack was in fact a superbly executed military operation carried out against the USA, requiring the utmost professional military skill in command, communications and control. It was flawless in timing, in the choice of selected aircraft to be used as guided missiles and in the coordinated delivery of those missiles to their pre-selected targets.”

Dr. Paul Roberts, former Assistant Secretary of the US Treasury, and presently Senior Research Fellow at Stamford University, has lent his support to the independent inquiry findings. He also claims that Osama Bin Laden was not responsible for September 11th. The doctor has challenged President Bush to make public the so-called “irrefutable evidence” incriminating Bin Laden.

So far the mainstream American news media has failed to publish or broadcast any details regarding the independent inquiry. Similarly, the White House, whilst having received a copy of the report, has remained silent on its findings.

AUTOMATIC PILOT AND 9.11 - An expert's opinion

<http://www.newsmakingnews.com/9/11automaticpilot.htm>

A group of military and civilian US pilots, under the chairmanship of Colonel Donn de Grand, after deliberating non-stop for 72 hours, has concluded that the flight crews of the four passenger airliners, involved in the September 11th tragedy, had no control over their aircraft.

In a detailed press communiqué the inquiry stated: “The so-called terrorist attack was in fact a superbly executed military operation carried out against the USA, requiring the utmost professional military skill in command, communications and control. It was flawless in timing, in the choice of selected aircraft to be used as guided missiles and in the coordinated delivery of those missiles to their pre-selected targets.”

The report seriously questions whether or not the suspect hijackers, supposedly trained on Cessna light aircraft, could have located a target dead-on 200 miles from take off point. It further throws into doubt their ability to master the intricacies of the instrument flight rules (IFR) in the 45 minutes from take off to the point of impact. Colonel de Grand said that it would be impossible for novices to have taken control of the four aircraft and orchestrated such a terrible act requiring military precision of the highest order.

A member of the inquiry team, a US Air Force officer who flew over 100 sorties during the Vietnam war, told the press conference: “Those birds (commercial airliners) either had a crack fighter pilot in the left seat, or they were being maneuvered by remote control.”

In evidence given to the enquiry, Captain Kent Hill (retd.) of the US Air Force, and friend of Chic Burlingame, the pilot of the plane that crashed into the Pentagon, stated that the US had on several occasions flown an unmanned aircraft, similar in size to a Boeing 737, across the Pacific from Edwards Air Force base in California to South Australia. According to Hill it had flown on a pre programmed flight path under the control of a pilot in an outside station.

Hill also quoted Bob Ayling, former British Airways boss, in an interview given to the London Economist on September 20th, 2001. Ayling admitted that it was now possible to control an aircraft in flight from either the ground or in the air. This was confirmed by expert witnesses at the inquiry who testified that airliners could be controlled by electro-magnetic pulse or radio frequency instrumentation from command and control platforms based either in the air or at ground level.

All members of the inquiry team agreed that even if guns were held to their heads none of them would fly a plane into a building. Their reaction would be to ditch the plane into a river or a field, thereby safeguarding the lives of those on the ground.

A further question raised by the inquiry was why none of the pilots concerned had alerted ground control. It stated that all pilots are trained to punch a four-digit code into the flight control’s transponder to warn ground control crews of a hijacking - but this did not happen.

During the press conference Captain Hill maintained that the four airliners must have been choreographed by an Airborne Warning and Control System (AWACS). This system can engage several aircraft simultaneously by knocking out their on-board flight controls. He said that all the evidence points to the fact that the pilots and their crews had not taken any evasive action to resist the supposed hijackers. They had not attempted any sudden changes in flight path or nose-diving procedures - which led him to believe that they had no control over their aircraft.

THE NEWS, in an attempt to further substantiate the potential veracity of these findings, spoke to an Algarve-based airline pilot, who has more than 20 years of experience in flying passenger planes, to seek his views. Captain Colin McHattie, currently flying with Cathay Pacific, agreed with the independent commission’s findings. However, he explained that while it is possible to fly a plane from the ground, the installation of the necessary equipment is a time-consuming process, and needs extensive planning. THE NEWS will publish a full interview with Captain McHattie in next week's edition.

The FBI also came in for criticism for the various pieces of contradictory evidence it has published regarding the suspects. Questions are now being asked as to how incorrect information was given out regarding the ID cards of the suspects, and the seat numbers they supposedly occupied after boarding the flights.

None of the suspects named by the FBI appeared on any of the official passenger lists. A further point was how the FBI had managed to retrieve the passport of one of the suspects amid the molten and twisted remains of thousands of tons of steel and rubble brought about by the Twin Towers collapse.

Dr. Paul Roberts, former Assistant Secretary of the US Treasury, and presently Senior Research Fellow at Stamford University, has lent his support to the independent inquiry findings. He also claims that Osama Bin Laden was not responsible for September 11th. The doctor has challenged President Bush to make public the so-called "irrefutable evidence" incriminating Bin Laden.

Colonel Donn de Grand said that if President Bush is lying it would not be the first time that the American people had been misled by its government. He cited the recently published official government archives describing President Roosevelt's duplicity in deceiving Americans about the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, which triggered the US entry into WWI.

He also highlighted the role of the country's government in misleading its citizens in respect of the Bay of Pigs invasion in Cuba, and the events that brought about the Spanish American war in the late 19th, century. "Whilst considering who committed this act of war on September 11th," he said, "albeit Russia, China, an Islamic country or NATO, we must also consider that the enemy may well be within the gates.

"Not for the first time the American public might be being misled, by those with ulterior motives, into lending its support to a war, this time against Iraq, that has no bearing whatsoever on the interests of the people of the USA."

So far the mainstream American news media has failed to publish or broadcast any details regarding the independent inquiry. Similarly, the White House, whilst having received a copy of the report, has remained silent on its findings.

This is an ignoramus, dumb, stupid question! Nothing brilliant about this at all! It just shows how dumb the rulers in Saudi are for accepting the propaganda pushed by the Jews hook line and sinker. I bet if this was the time of Christ they would be joining in chorus leading the charge of "crucify him!" A more intelligent question to ask would be; What real evidence does the U.S. have tying the Saudis to 9/11? Are we simply supposed to believe that Bin Laden and Saudis committed this horrendous crime simply because our known to be liars' news media and ZOG says so? Now really should we really be that dumb????

A better question would be to ask about the huge mountain of evidence showing Israel's involvement with 9/11. Question why are there so many connections from celebrating Israelis, Odigo warnings, profiteering, spy ring operation, Mossad attempted bombing of the Mexican Congress, etc, etc showing Israeli involvement with 9/11? When the Saudis, and all Muslims for that matter, start thinking and putting serious questions to the known liars, then maybe, just maybe the truth will be known.

I hate to say it, but my experience both with knowing some of the Saudi Royalty intimately as well as living in Kingdom witnessing some of their actions has diminished my respect for them! Many of them are corrupt to the core and adopt western values and western ways of looking at the world too quickly. I have much more respect for the average Saudi on the street. I have talked to many of them to know that they are much more aware of Bin Laden's innocence in 9/11 and Israel's culpability than their leaders. Weak leaders, like this dumb Prince spewing garbage, to please his western masters do not represent the thinking of the majority of Saudi people.

My personal experience with one Saudi Royalty was when I had my own business as an IBM Business Partner. His name was Sheikh Ibrahim. This person although presenting an air of Islam and speaking Arabic, Quran, etc with great authority and proficiency was corrupt to the core. The number of women he seduced broke more records than any playboy pimp I knew of in the U.S. His corrupt business dealings and the hurt he caused even to his own people were horrendous. I started to get involved with him in a venture involving millions of dollars. I have to thank G'd that I was able to get out of it in time without seriously getting hurt. When I left, the Pakistani brother who was his accountant for several years also resigned. He was impressed that I was able to see through him so quick while it took him years to get to that point.

I have lost a lot of respect for many of the dumb so-called Princes in Saudi. I have learnt too much about how westernized and corrupt many of them are to stomach any true respect for them. My experience with Sheikh Ibrahim in Dallas pales in comparison to what other Saudi Royalty is guilty of doing. From close Saudi confidants I have learnt much about their corruption to warrant any respect from me. They have become perfect tools to be used and discarded by the Israelis and Americans at will.

Democracy is dead as a result of Americans mind numbing acceptance of media lies about 9/11.

This is from John Kaminski at

<http://www.rense.com/general38/honest.htm>

Quote:

---

[T]he real question as America sinks into the suffocating hell of a totalitarian dictatorship is this.

If our leaders have been proved to be liars about the sick and sinful destruction of humanity in Afghanistan and Iraq, why do a majority of Americans still accept what these same lying leaders said about the 9/11 atrocity, that it was the work of foreign terrorists who envied our freedom! As Gerard Holmgren once so aptly said, this is the most ridiculous of all conspiracy theories to believe.

To a special few, responsibility for the 9/11 butchery has always been obvious. Zbigniew Brzezinski wrote about the need for it in a book, and the Republican-dominated Project for a New American Century recommended it as a desirable event for achieving its goals.

But most simpleton Americans are afraid to even contemplate such a frightening possibility. They would prefer to believe the lie, without really realizing what will happen to them if they do.

In the history of the world, there has never been a bigger lie than 9/11, yet most Americans still cling in closed-minded terror to the official story, swallow their pride at airports as minimum-wage fascists probe their private parts, stick flag decals on their cars in hopes they won't be pulled over and jailed for something they don't expect by Ashcroft's new storm troopers, and watch in numbed banality as the official government investigation begins by saying they already know who did it, so there's no sense investigating that.

Americans have swallowed the lie whole-hog that we need to beef up security because there are terrorists in our midst, when the obvious fact is that the terrorists reside in Washington, and are terrorizing the whole world, with the eager help of your neighbors, the corrupt local police and corrupt local judges, who accept what their superiors order them to do just as the guards at Auschwitz did.

Let that one roll through your mind: American cops are now just the guards at Auschwitz, participating in the elimination of all those who won't participate in the American master plan of enslaving the world. Can you say death chamber at Guantanamo with no real trial?

How can this possibly be happening? How can Americans have gone brain-dead all at once? It didn't happen overnight, I can tell you. From the Kennedy assassination onward, Americans have been conditioned to accept phony excuses for political crimes as protests and questions are all blunted in a mind-numbing miasma of bureaucratic mazes. So everyone gave up trying to ask questions, and rationalized their indifference as not critical to my survival. Time to guess again.

Even more disturbing than the murderous plans of Bush and his petronazi gang of Zionist manipulators is the silent acquiescence of the so-called opposition. These "liberal" Democrats CREATED the Patriot Act, which castrates our Constitution. These gutless bureaucrats, ever mindful of the need to attract corporate campaign contributions, went along with Bush's invasions for fear of losing the votes of mindless, flag-waving fascist Americans.

Consider the Democratic opposition for a moment: Hillary Clinton, Kerry, Lieberman, Gephardt, Edwards, Dean, Mosely-Braun, Sharpton "all but one of the Democratic candidates BACKED the military moves of Bush. And all of them "no exceptions " endorse the lies we have been told about 9/11, as well as the fiction that Israel is a benevolent democracy.

I get a big laugh out of all these calls for petitions on various issues. Ha. And the same goes double for all this talk about the next election. Ha ha. The elections of 2000 proved Americans no longer have elections. It doesn't matter who you vote for. Who they want to win will win, and they have both the technological expertise and the cash on hand to make it happen. Just ask any Supreme Court justice.

Take your presidential candidate and stuff him. The American system of democracy is dead. The presidential campaign is a sideshow to delude the American populace into thinking they still have choice about what happens.

Bulletin: they don't.

A most enlightening article providing more proof to show that the Israeli Mossad was responsible for 9/11 and that the government agency that was most complicit in helping them pull 9/11 off was the U.S. Department of Defense. A truly excellent read!

"When you eliminate the impossible, whatever remains--however improbable--must be the truth."
--Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Not long after September 11, 2001, a story surfaced on the Internet accusing the Israelis of taking part in a conspiracy that resulted in the World Trade Center and Pentagon attacks. The origin of the story was attributed to Jordan's Al Watan newspaper; and it was reported that Pakistani publications followed by Islamic clerics in the Middle East and Central Asia spread the story.

Another tragedy was born and reared out of those reports. A number of anti-Semitic bigots hopped on the bandwagon of that ill-considered, wild conjecture and misused it to feed their rant against Jews.

As might be expected, a number of people stormed onto the Internet to debunk the Israel conspiracy theories. That effectively put an end to questioning the official story of a plot generated by Osama bin Laden and executed by his Al-Qaeda operatives. No one dared ask the most important question: Who stood to benefit from the catastrophe that killed thousands on September 11, 2001?

Al-Qaeda? What benefit? Even terrorists need a cause. "They hate America" isn't a cause. "They're jealous of America's freedoms" isn't a cause.

Saudi Arabia? Michael Moore suggests this in Dude, Where's My Country. But why? If there were an affair between Bush and the Saudi royal family, how would 9/11 ever benefit the Saudis? No conceivable benefit accrues to either the Saudi royal family or the Saudi military.

America's oil interests? This seems to be a favorite among guessing pundits. However, if the Bush cabal and the Saudis are in cahoots, they already have Middle East oil interests sewn up. There's plenty of time to worry about Afghanistan gas pipes and Iraqi oil when supplies get dangerously low. Why burn up millions of gallons of fuel in a war to protect fuel supplies for control of Iraqi oil? For what? In order to pay for the war costs?

What about G. W. Bush and the Republican Party? While the "Patriot" theme and "fighting terrorism" undoubtedly aided the Republicans in the 2002 elections as well as their legislative agenda, the risk of prolonged occupations accompanied by deaths of military personnel argue against any long term benefit to Bush and his party. Combine that with continued loss of credibility over the falsehoods used to justify unilateral attacks on Iraq, and any potential benefit seen earlier goes up in smoke.

The Bilderberg group and the financial interests of a "New World Order"? That international finance has been served by 9/11 seems obvious with the US being looted to serve a trans-national elite with no allegiance to any nation. That they're organized enough to plan and execute a national disaster like 9/11 is impossible. (<http://www.nexusmagazine.com/Bilderbergers.html>)

Israel? Without a sliver of doubt, Israel was/is the major benefactor of the 9/11 strike. How has Israel benefited? Mossad, Israel's intelligence agency, believed that Iraq could have weapons of mass destruction and Israel wanted Iraq neutralized before they had a chance to use them against Israel. (<http://pballes.com/updates9.htm>)

Israeli hawks have, since the beginnings of their occupation of Palestine, wanted to rid Palestine of the Palestinians. So long as Palestinians remained in the occupied territories, an Iraqi missile strike that would kill more Palestinians than Israelis was impossible. So long as Iraq possessed a capacity to even develop WMD's it would be impossible for Israel to get rid of the Palestinians. Thus, getting control of Iraq facilitated Israel's ultimate desire to eliminate the Palestinians.

How does 9/11 fit into the Iraq-Israel scenario? 9/11 provided the clarion call for the so-called war against terrorism. Without 9/11, the U.S. would have had no excuse for invading Afghanistan. The battle against Al-Qaeda and bin Laden was the precursor to the invasion of Iraq; and the trumped up connection between Iraq and Al-Qaeda provided the excuse for invading Iraq.

There's no doubt that Israel's Mossad, the Middle East intelligence experts as far as America is concerned, provided the assessment of Iraq's WMD's to America. The following Associated Press report (December 8, 2003) makes clear, though perhaps unwittingly, that Israelis believed that Iraq had WMD's.

ISRAELI intelligence overplayed the threat posed by Iraq and reinforced an assumption by American and British counterparts that Saddam Hussein had large caches of weapons of mass destruction, a retired Israeli general said today, after studying the run-up to the US-led invasion of Iraq.

The Israeli assessment may have been colored by politics, including a desire to see Saddam Hussein toppled, said Shlomo Brom, once a senior Israeli military intelligence officer and now a researcher with Israel's top strategic think tank.

Brom stopped short of accusing intelligence officials of intentionally misleading Britain and the United States.

Brom said in an interview today that "Israeli intelligence was a full partner with the United States and Britain in developing a false picture of Saddam Hussein's weapons of mass destruction capability".

He said Israeli intelligence "badly overestimated the Iraqi threat to Israel and reinforced the American and British belief that the weapons existed".

Brom said the Israeli assessment might have been influenced by politics.

Brom's last comment was a gross understatement! And while he stopped short of accusing Mossad of intentionally misleading Britain and the United States, there's little doubt that's exactly what happened.

Considering again the answer to the question "who benefited from 9/11?" it becomes perfectly clear that Israel, and Israel alone, had reason to plot and execute the disaster that hit The World Trade Center, the Pentagon and the four flights involved in that fateful September day in 2001. Israel, however, couldn't possibly have executed such a plan alone without help from some US authorities. Who might possibly provide the means for accomplishing that genocidal goal?

The FBI and the CIA along with the general category of "the Bush Administration" have been suggested in conjecture about possible accomplices in a conspiracy. "The Bush Administration" is much too broad to even be nominated for serious consideration, with the ever-present possibility that somewhere among the ranks there might be a whistle blower with a conscience.

The FBI has certainly refused to cooperate with inquirers outside the government; but that refusal to release information in ongoing investigations cannot be logically interpreted as part of a cover-up. The same can be said for the CIA. Additionally people in both agencies have revealed that they had advanced knowledge of the potential hijackings.

Apart from other considerations, the CIA, having shared intelligence with Mossad and having been burnt on a number of those occasions with false intelligence, would have no love lost for the deceivers among their Israeli counterparts. According to Gordon Thomas, "both the FBI and CIA regard Mossad as a clear and present danger to U.S. national security." (<http://www.antiwar.com/orig/thomas2.html>)

Who's left as cooperative partners in the 9/11 executions that would form the basis for the American invasions against all objections from most of the rest of the world? The process of elimination leaves only the Department of Defense (DoD). Its leaders are secretive enough to keep its plans under wraps. To violate the top-secret code of silence, even by someone who later felt moved by conscience to disclose the truth, would be cause for court martial and a death sentence for treason, if not to an assassination made to look like a suicide.

Unlike the CIA, which has "never killed Americans" in its covert activities, the DoD has been responsible for the deaths of thousands of Americans, both in the military and among civilians considered as collateral damage. The DoD has no qualms about killing Americans when it serves their purpose.

For 60 years the DoD managed to cover up their prior knowledge of the planned Pearl Harbor attack by the Japanese that killed 4575 US Navy personnel. The DoD also stopped US fighter jets from scrambling to end the Israeli massacre of US Navy personnel on the USS Liberty. (<http://www.usliberty.org/>)

The DoD is the only body that could have kept the North American Aerospace Defense Command (NORAD) from performing its duty to scramble fighter jets to intercept the hijacked planes on 9/11. The DoD was in the position to stop the hijacked jets from performing their mission. They didn't (<http://www.publicaction.com/9/11/noradsend2.html>), and they've never answered why they didn't.

Similarly, just as they were in a position to stop the attack on Pearl Harbor, they did not. There was no excuse for that failure other than using the attack to justify U.S. entry into WWII. That the DoD did not intercept the hijacked aircraft on 9/11 is evidence that they wanted the end result to happen and participated in the attack.

Leading civilians in the DoD figure among US leaders serving Israel. Paul Wolfowitz, Richard Perle and Douglas Feith have been more devoted to Israeli interests than they have to those of America. At best, they have acted as "dual loyalists."

Some background on these dual loyalists of the DoD:

Paul Wolfowitz, United States Secretary of Defense: "The neoconservative members of President Bush's cabinet led by Wolfowitz advocated pre-emptive strikes on terror cells in Afghanistan." (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Paul\_Wolfowitz)

"Wolfowitz, a 'hawkish' conservative military analyst under Ronald Reagan, had in the 1990s, during the Clinton presidency formulated a new foreign policy with regard to Iraq and other 'potential aggressor states', dismissing 'containment' in favor of 'pre-emption'; strike first to eliminate threats." Such a strike could not be made without an attack like Pearl Harbor or like 9/11. (http://www.disinfopedia.org/wiki.phtml?title=Paul\_Wolfowitz)

Richard Perle, previously chairman, now member of the Defense Policy Board for the DoD: together with Douglas Feith and Richard Wurmser, Perle authored a paper "A Clean Break: A New Strategy for Securing the Realm," in 1996 which declared that "removing Saddam Hussein from power in Iraq' was an "important Israeli strategic objective..." (http://www.disinfopedia.org/wiki.phtml?title=Richard\_N\_Perle) That removal could not be accomplished without a 'casus belli' (an event used to justify war).

Douglas Feith, Undersecretary of Policy at the U.S. Department of Defense: "A prolific writer, Feith has left a long paper trail of anti-Arab tracts and diatribes against those who challenge or seek to compromise Israel's strength and as he defines it, 'moral superiority' over the Arabs." (<http://middleeastinfo.org/article701.html>) Feith would participate in any plot to advance Israel's interests at the expense of the Arabs.

Along with the DoD triumvirate, add the two white house controllers. First, David Wurmser, whose Israeli wife and close friend Perle make him the perfect conduit to VP Richard Cheney. "...it was precisely because of the strategic importance of the Levant that Wurmser advocated overthrowing Iraqi President Saddam Hussein in favor of an Iraqi National Congress.... 'Whoever inherits Iraq dominates the entire Levant strategically,' he wrote in one 1996 paper for the Jerusalem-based Institute for Advanced Strategic and Political Studies." (http://www.disinfopedia.org/wiki.phtml?title=David\_Wurmser). Iraq could not be 'inherited' without 9/11 as an excuse for a pre-emptive strike.

The second, Elliot Abrams, described in The Nation as "the nastiest policy warrior as Washington has seen in decades" was convicted of lying to Congress about the Iran Contra affair and he serves Israel in the National Security Council. As Jim Lobe observed in Tom Paine "Israel's Likud Scores Big With White House Appointment." Abrams would have no qualms about sacrificing American lives for Israel's benefit.

All of these Likudite Bush aides are unequivocal supporters of Israel's conservative Likud Party, now headed by the 'Butcher of Sabra & Shatilla' Ariel Sharon; and the dual loyalists have past ties either to Likud or to Israeli companies.

Having eliminated the impossible, what remains is not as improbable as it might have looked at first. What remains are people in the DoD with a motive. Combine that with the history of deception of both Mossad and the DoD as well as their proven willingness to sacrifice American lives for their causes.

Victor Ostrovski (By Way of Deception and The Other Side of Deception) made it perfectly clear that Mossad often infiltrated any organization it wanted to watch and/or control. For them, infiltrating Al-Qaeda cells would be a cinch; and getting a number of Arabs to hijack planes under any ruse would be normal Mossad behavior. Ostrovski, former Mossad agent, revealed how Mossad got America to bomb Libya and fight Iraq. There's plenty of evidence of Mossad agents posing as Arabs, thus supplying the "means" for the attacks and blaming Al-Qaeda and the Arabs. (<http://www.fpp.co.uk/BoD/Mossad/FakePalestinians.html>)

There's no reason to believe that the Arabs involved in the hijacking, who were not the expert flyers with the skills required to accomplish the flying feats of 9/11, had a clue about where they would end up in planes guided by remote control. All the hijackers had to do was turn over the guidance to ground control in the hands of the DoD. (http://www.9/11-strike.com/remote\_bb.htm)

Since the supposed Arab hijackers couldn't even fly small planes solo, according to the testimony of their flight instructors, and since remote control devices had proven effective, the process of elimination again points to the only conclusion remaining: 9/11 was planned and executed by Mossad and the DoD in order to justify military action in the Middle East for the major benefactor, Israel.

Until now, the belief that Israel could have anything to do with planning or executing the atrocities of 9/11 have been arbitrarily dismissed as 'conspiracy theory'. The Anti Defamation League (ADL) in America has labeled any such beliefs as anti-Semitic. Conveniently, the ADL has chosen to ignore the fact that Arabs are also Semites. Furthermore, presenting a well-reasoned case against Israel—even when it or its agent's activities are criminal—does not constitute anti-Semitism. Israel, through its admittedly deceptive intelligence arm, Mossad, in tandem with a DoD run by "dual loyalists", had all that it takes to establish a case in a court of law: the means, the motive and the opportunity.

If the ADL or any other group wishes to protect its followers from the dangers of spreading anti-Semitism, they need to closely examine the activities of the war hawks in both Tel Aviv (or Jerusalem) and Washington. Most importantly, they need to ask and seek an honest answer to the question: who benefited from the catastrophe that killed thousands on September 11, 2001?

It is critical for anyone who is really after knowing the truth to consider two of the most significant events involving Americans since the year 2000. How did we come about being involved with these events and also how did we go about assessing blame and identifying the culprits. Looking carefully and dispelling the hype pushed on us by an untrustworthy media would expose significant facts. Let's look at the two events briefly:

1. 9/11 Attacks: The following is from the Globe Intel website:

Quote:

---

Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon authorized the leak of sensitive documents which reveal America's spy agencies were warned about a terrorist strike weeks before September 11... Mossad chiefs insist the Israeli spy agency was tracking Osama Bin-Laden's terrorists in America before September 11 and that that the information was passed on to the CIA on Five separate occasions before the attacks on the WTC and Pentagon. As late as August 24, less than two weeks before the attacks, a Mossad warning, confirmed by German intelligence, BND, said that "terrorists plan to hijack commercial aircraft to use as weapons to attack important symbols of American and Israeli culture."

---

The following is from the September 18, 2001 issue of the Jerusalem Post!

Quote:

---

...the Israeli officials specifically warned their counterparts in Washington that "large-scale terrorist attacks on highly visible targets on the American mainland were imminent." They offered no specific information about targets, but they did link the plot to Afghanistan-based terrorist Osama bin Laden, and they told the Americans there were "strong grounds" for suspecting Iraqi involvement.

This was an accusation more than it was a warning. Mossad's pointing the finger to Bin Laden in advance was an attempt to ensure that Bin Laden was blamed for the attack, to pre-empt the finger-pointing. They wanted no other possibilities to be considered. As a result a lock was placed on Bin Laden. Along with Bin Laden they skillfully also pointed to Iraq, an enemy that they wanted to use the goyim to get rid of. They already had their spy network in place in the U.S. and were armed with explosives and in all the right places to carry out 9/11. They were so exact about when and where it was going to take place that none of their people got killed in the WTC, some even received Odigo warnings 2 hours before it happened and others were strategically placed to film and celebrate the twin towers destruction. Such fantastic knowledge and details is truly amazing for one who did not plan and execute the act.

2. Iraq: Israel manipulated western intelligence agencies to attack Iraq. Here is a story about this from the Hebrew Press where an Israeli general admits how his government manipulated the American and British intelligence agencies:

Quote:

---

How Israel Manipulated Western Intelligence Agencies
Richard H. Curtiss, Special to Arab News

WASHINGTON, 19 December 2003 — It's no secret that much of the news reported in Israel's Hebrew-language media never reaches the mainstream American press, for the simple reason that items unfavorable to Israel generally are not translated. And, because very few Israelis break this self-imposed censorship, items from the Hebrew press that do appear may be much more newsworthy than their anemic English translations indicate.

It was a bit stunning, therefore, to read an article in Strategic Assessment, the quarterly bulletin issued by the Jaffee Center for Strategic Studies at Tel Aviv University. The report, titled "The War in Iraq: An Intelligence Failure?" was written by Shlomo Brom, a brigadier general in the Israeli Army reserves, and said what no one seems to have dared publish since President George W. Bush decided to wage war on Iraq. Shockingly, it told the full truth about the American and British intelligence "sources" making the case for war.

In fact, according to Brom, these sources were utterly compromised by Israeli intelligence, which made the case for starting the war and kept it going as long as necessary. The retired general described Israel as a "full partner" in US and British intelligence failures that exaggerated Iraq's nuclear, chemical and biological weapons programs in the lead up to the US-led invasion...

In both these examples Israel led American actions on who to blame and who to attack. Can we say it is coincidence that the only nation in the world that is leading us to blindly follow their suggestions in matters of critical importance to the U.S. is Israel? How is it that this small nation has so much power and pull over the mighty U.S.?

This should be of great concern to Americans. We are being led to kill and be killed not as a result of American interests but as a result of being manipulated by a foreign country for their gain. We have been told who did 9/11, the worst domestic attack on U.S. soil, and also blocked from doing any reasonable investigation to find the true culprits from the available evidence. We have been told that there is proof but after more than 2 years none have been shown to the American public. It is as if Americans don't know anything about frame-ups even though Israel has been guilty of framing Arabs on numerous occasions for actions they commit. Even with Israelis also admitting that they manipulated Americans and Brits to attack Iraq with false intelligence, the average American still remains blind. We are indeed in a very dark period of American history. This is a very sorry state of affairs for us. What is worse is the death and misery our nation has unleashed on millions of innocent Muslims as a result of being manipulated by Israel. Is it any wonder that Jews think so little about the intelligence of gentiles?

The following post shows how far Israel will go to frame Arabs for their crimes. This time they were caught creating a phony Al-Qaeda ring in Palestine. The proof was shown to the U.S. The big question is what is our government going to do about it?

<http://www.mediabypass.com/archives/february-03.htm>

Mossad Exposed in Phony "Palestinian al Qaeda" Caper

by Michele Steinberg and Hussein Askary

The United States government has been provided with concrete evidence that the Israeli Mossad and other Israeli intelligence services have been involved in a 13-month effort to "recruit" an Israeli-run, phony "al Qaeda cell" among Palestinians, so that Israel could achieve a frontline position in the U.S. war against terrorism and get a green light for a worldwide "revenge without borders" policy. The question: Does the United States have the moral fiber to investigate?

Evidence of the Israeli dirty tricks burst onto the public scene on December 6, when Col. Rashid Abu Shbak, head of the Palestinian Preventive Security Services in the Gaza Strip, held a press conference revealing the details of the alleged plot, as his agency had put the pieces together.

The revelations undermine the "big lie" that Prime Minister Ariel Sharon has used to justify new brutal attacks on Palestinian civilians in the Gaza Strip and other occupied areas. Sharon claimed on December 4 that Israeli intelligence had "hard evidence" of al Qaeda operations in the Gaza Strip. Now, the top Palestinian leadership has shown the United States and other nations how Israeli intelligence entities were creating that al Qaeda link!

American leader Lyndon LaRouche, a Democratic Presidential pre-candidate in 2004, commented that these revelations, if confirmed, could be "of strategic importance" in stopping the American, British and Israeli war hawks pushing for a Middle East war, beginning with an invasion of Iraq. A war would justify the Sharon government's plan to annihilate the very idea of a Palestinian state.

LaRouche warned that if institutions of the American Presidency and the international community successfully block an American pre-emptive war on Iraq, the biggest danger would be that a "mega-terror" attack, blamed on Palestinians, or an "Iraqi-linked" al Qaeda, would be staged by Israel's ruling Jabotinskyite fanatics, to put the war back on the agenda.

News about the Mossad-run attempt to create an al Qaeda cell came when well-informed intelligence sources based in Washington had already told the Executive Intelligence Review (EIR) that there are many doubts about the Mossad's hasty declaration that "al Qaeda" had been responsible for the November 28 attack on a hotel in Mombasa, Kenya, where three Israelis were killed, and the failed rocket attack on an Israeli chartered jet that was departing from Mombasa airport.

There was no identification of the bombers within the first five days of the incident, the sources pointed out, yet Sharon's government ministers went on an immediate propaganda rampage announcing worldwide revenge. Authorities in Kenya also denied the al Qaeda link. But the usefulness of blaming al Qaeda, for the Israeli right, was palpable, when Foreign Minister Benjamin Netanyahu called the Kenya attacks "a golden opportunity" to prove to the United States that Bush's war on terrorism, and Israel's war with the Palestinians is the same thing. Netanyahu's faction has violently rejected the Palestinian Authority's revelations, and so far, the American and European press have followed suit, despite the dramatic nature of these charges, and the documents that the Palestinians have provided to the international press.

Chronology of the Revelations

On December 7, the British news service, Reuters, the Israeli daily Ha'aretz, and Qatar-based Al-Jazeera TV network, all reported that the Palestinian Authority had accused the Mossad of creating a phony al Qaeda cell in the Gaza Strip. Ha'aretz reported, "the head of Palestinian Preventive Security" in the Gaza Strip, Col. Rashid Abu Shbak, said on December 6, "that his forces had identified a number of Palestinian collaborators who had been ordered by Israeli security agencies to 'work in the Gaza Strip under the name of al Qaeda.' He said the investigation was ongoing and evidence would be presented soon." Al-Jazeera TV added that the Palestinian authorities had arrested a group of Palestinian "collaborators with Israeli occupation" in Gaza, involved in the operation.

Reuters' reporter Diala Saadeh, under the headline, "Palestinians: Israel Faked Gaza al-Qaeda Presence," quoted a number of Palestinian Authority (P.A.) senior officials, including President Yasser Arafat, who told reporters at his West Bank Ramallah headquarters, that Sharon's claims of al Qaeda operations in Palestinian territories "is a big, big, big lie to cover [Sharon's] attacks and his crimes against our people everywhere." P.A. Information Minister Yasser Abed Rabbo detailed the case: "There are certain elements who were instructed by the Mossad to form a cell under the name of al Qaeda in the Gaza Strip in order to justify the assault and the military campaigns of the Israeli occupation army against Gaza."

Palestinian officials promised to provide detailed evidence, and did so on December 8, in a press conference addressed by Colonel Shbak, and by Palestinian Minister for Planning and International Cooperation Nabil Shaath. Shbak told the international representatives that, "Over the past nine months, we've been investigating eight cases in which Israeli intelligence posing as al Qaeda operatives recruited Palestinians in the Gaza Strip." Colonel Shbak said that three men were under arrest, and 11 had been released.

He explained that those released had voluntarily provided information going back to May 2002, about the contacts that had been made asking them to operate as an "al Qaeda" group. The alleged al Qaeda recruiters were traced to Israeli intelligence, said Colonel Shbak. He detailed incidents, some of which were described in official documents, of cell phone calls and e-mails, where Palestinians were asked to "join al Qaeda." Shbak said, "We investigated the origin of those calls, which used [wireless phone] roaming, and messages, and found out they all came from Israel," reported the publication Islam Online. He said that the potential "recruits," had been given money and weapons, "although most of these weapons did not even work." He also noted that the money for these targeted Palestinians "was transferred from bank accounts in Jerusalem or Israel."

Minister Shaath announced at the press conference that the P.A. had "handed ambassadors and consuls of the Arab and foreign countries, documents revealing the involvement of the Israeli intelligence in recruiting citizens from Gaza Strip in a fake organization carrying the name of Qaeda." He said the ploy was intended "to create a new excuse to escalate the aggression on Gaza Strip."

Mossad Exposed in Phony "Palestinian al Qaeda" Caper

by Michele Steinberg and Hussein Askary

The United States government has been provided with concrete evidence that the Israeli Mossad and other Israeli intelligence services have been involved in a 13-month effort to "recruit" an Israeli-run, phony "al Qaeda cell" among Palestinians, so that Israel could achieve a frontline position in the U.S. war against terrorism and get a green light for a worldwide "revenge without borders" policy. The question: Does the United States have the moral fiber to investigate?

I want to add the following post by artbishop to this thread. He makes some excellent points regarding evidence from videos at the airport pointing to the Arab hijackers. These are other things that also have to be considered regarding 9/11. The only thing I like to add is that the evidence is overwhelming that it was Israelis, along with corrupt elements in the US government, who masterminded 9/11. This has been my whole case on this thread. Also I believe that the 5 celebrating Mossad agents caught videotaping the event, were also involved with planting explosives in the WTC buildings.

We are SICK and TIRED of this Bush knew and let it happen kaka! SICK of everyone saying bush knew bush knew bush knew bullshit! We have to STOP this CHARADE and spit it out already!

BUSH DID IT!

Harvey Lee Osama Bin Laden was clueless in Afghanistan.

BUSH and his brother Captain MARVEL and the shadow cabal/gov MASTERMINDED 9/11.

We shouldn't be electing him president, we should be trying him in court, and he should stand trial and be sent to jail not the white house.

From day one we should have focused on the investigation instead of blindly seeking revenge from who bush and tony blurr told us did it. THEY did it. There were no "19 hijackers". A REAL investigation by the people and the families of the 9/11 victims would prove beyond a doubt that the Bush gang the real thugs masterminded 9/11.

The mere fact that they shipped the debris if the WTC to the scrap yards in Pakistan speaks volumes of cover-up. They didn't want us to find explosives in the debris that no 19 hijackers could have placed that only MARVIN and his security firm that handled the WTC could have placed.

The nagging fact that the THREE AIRPORTS where the alleged hijackers boarded the planes were run by an Israeli security firm...and they DO NOT have any security cameras installed in the airports and cannot produce any security camera video footage of the 19 NINETEEN "hijackers" is an INSULT to our intelligence. That is IMPOSSIBLE. The first thing one would hook up when handling the SECURITY of an airport is video cameras. That is SOP....EVEN 711's have them!

So WHERE are the videos of the 19 hijackers?

Be sure that there were videos of all the passengers that day in all those airports.

They are HIDING the videos.

WHY ARE THEY HIDING THE VIDEOS?

Because NW...there were NO 19 Arab hijackers that's why.

They would have beaten us to death with them on FOX and CNN if they had footage of NINETEEN HIJACKERS.

They didn't and the fact that they don't say that there were NO hijackers.

The 19 hijackers, in an honest and fair trial..will be proven to be the BIGGEST BUSHURBAN MYTH that we bought hook line and stinker.
